The Late Grace I. Alford

Grace I. Alford, 82, of 37 North Street, Madrid, New York, wife of Mark Alford, died at her home at 2:55 p.m., Thursday, May 15, 1986. She had been in failing health since December.

Born in Hemmingsford, Que., February 25, 1904, eldest daughter of the late David Gordon and his wife, the late Bertha Crawford Gordon, she moved with her family to Elgin, Que., as a small child. She attended local schools and the Kensington United Church and sang in the church choir along with her mother. On June 25, 1932, at the home of her parents on the First Concession, she married Mark Alford, with Rev. James Woodside officiating.

The couple made their home in Madrid, N.Y., and Grace was known among her relatives and friends as a gentle and happy woman and as a great cook. She loved making pies and other goodies and no one who visited her left her home without sitting down to a bite to eat. Her other hobbies were her garden and her activities connected with her church.

She was a member of the United Church of Madrid and the United Protestant Women's Group.

She is survived by her husband, Mark; a son, Stanley and his wife, Barbara, Madrid, N.Y.; a daughter, Eileen Alford Kelley and her husband, Patrick, Hilton, N.Y.; a sister, Eleanor (Mrs. Allan Smillie), Dunville, Ont., two brothers, Ira Gordon, Huntingdon, Que., and Charles Gordon, Dunnville, six grandchildren and several nephews and nieces. She was predeceased by her sisters, Claire (Mrs. Ralph Lavery) of Montreal, and Jean (Mrs. William McGibbon) of Syracuse, N.Y.

The body rested at the Fay G. Mann Funeral Home in Madrid and the funeral service was held in the chapel Saturday afternoon, May 17, with Rev. Judith Persen, of the United Church of Madrid, officiating. Interment was at the Madrid Cemetery.
