The late Rupert Enderle

Rupert Enderle, who was born in Kirchberg, Austria on September 20, 1905, died at the Barrie Memorial Hospital in Ormstown on September 17, 1986.

He emigrated to Canada in April 1927 at the age of 21. Upon arriving in Canada he worked in Saskatoon four years and one year in Edmonton.

Then, coming to Montreal, he worked at the Dominion Rubber Factory.

While in Montreal he met and married his wife Mary and they moved to Hemmingford in May 1932.

They purchased a farm on Fisher street and have been living there for 54 years.

In his earlier days Rupert was a mason, building chimneys and doing plastering in the area.

DONNELLY, Ruben Alexander - At Hotel Dieu Hospital, Cornwall, Ontario on Thursday, October 16, 1986 at 73 years. Ruben Alexander Donnelly of St-Andrew's West, Ontario, beloved husband of Margaret St-Onge. Dear father of Donald of Hamilton, Richard of Ottawa, Wayne of Alberta, Ronald of Grimsby, Ont., Gerald of Hamilton, Myles of Cornwall, Peter of Ottawa, Lyndon of Brampton, Mrs. Gene Stockbauer (June) of Franklin Centre, and Mrs. Brian Salter (Ann) of Petawawa, Ont. Dear brother of Harold (New York State) and Mrs. Henry Tremblay (Violet) of Malone, N.Y. Also survived by 21 grandchildren. By the deceased wishes there was no visitation.

A memorial Mass was held on Friday, Oct. 17, 1986 at 5 p.m. in St-Bridget Church, Trout River, N.Y. By Family request donations to The Heart and Stroke Foundation would be appreciated. The funeral arrangements were entrusted to the Co-operative Funeral Home, 3026 Pitt Street North, Cornwall Ontario.

PALMER, Allan - At his residence Hemmingford, Quebec, on Friday, October 17, 1986. Allan Erns Palmer, age 70 years, dear husband of June Wilton, dear father of Barry, David, Sharon and Judy. Survived by six grandchildren. Funeral service at the J.M. Sharpe Funeral Home, 461 Champlain Street, Hemmingford, on Monday, October 20 at 11:00 a.m. Interment Hemmingford Cemetery. In lieu of flowers donations to the Hemmingford Ambulance Fund or Hemmingford Medical Centre Auxillary.

As time went by, Rupert planted many apple trees on his farm, being one of the first apple growers in this area. He retired from the apple business in 1974, and his son Joe purchased the farm and is carrying on with the family business with his three sons.

Rupert also kept himself busy with his beehives and each year had a plentiful supply of honey for sale.

Rupert was fortunate in returning to his homeland four times, the first being in 1954, after having been in Canada for 27 years. The next three times he went with his wife.

After retirement Rupert purchased a home in St. Petersburg, Florida where he and his wife spent many winter months.

CARD OF THANKS

A special thanks to Dr. Lemieux, Dr. Thompson and nurses, for the special care you gave mother and daughter, while our stay there. John, Jill and Michelle Barrington.

I wish to thank Dr. Thompson and staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital, for the care I received while a patient there. Also a special thank you to relatives and friends, for cards, visits and gifts.

Frances Kerr
We would like to express our sincere thanks to family and friends who helped to make our 35th Wedding Anniversary such a memorable occasion.

Stanley and Beatrice McCall

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our relatives, friends and neighbors, who helped us to celebrate our 25th Anniversary. Also thank you to all who helped with the party in any way. It was greatly appreciated by both of us. Thank-you

Ernest & Rosalie Mather

IN MEMORIAM

DARRAGH, Mary - In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, who passed away October 21, 1985.

Those we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen unheard but always near. As time unfolds an other year.

Loved and sadly missed by Dan and Hazel, John and Donna, Greg and Amanda

FARQUHAR, Alton, In loving memory of a dear husband and Dad, died suddenly October 21, 1968. No longer in our lives to share. But in our hearts he's always there. Lovingly remembered by Greta, sons and daughters and families.

Rupert is survived by his wife Mary and five children: Andrew and his wife Irene, Joe and his wife Anne, Helen, Madeline, and Shirley and her husband David Simpson, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

He also leaves four sisters and one brother-in-law in Austria, three nieces and several nephews.

A brother pre-deceased him 10 years ago, and another brother was killed during the war.

The funeral service was conducted by Father Daoust at St. Romain's church. Pallbearers were six grandsons.

Rupert will be sadly missed by his family and friends.

Susan Leahy and Larry Watt wed in double ring ceremony

A very lovely wedding took place on July 19, 1986, in the St-Antoine-Abbe church.

Susan Leahy, daughter of Jim and Alice Leahy, of Franklin Centre, Que. and Larry Watt, son of Colvin and Terry Watt of Covey Hill, celebrated their marriage in a double ring ceremony.
