IN MEMORIAM

LEGAULT, Rose May - In loving memory of a dear aunt, who passed away January 7th, 1992. Even though I haven't spent much time with you or went to see you, it never meant that you weren't thought of. I can still remember a lot of the times When I was just a young child. How you took good care of me and how you always had the patience with me and also your own children. You were always there for whoever needed your help. You were the best Mother that anyone could have dreamed of. The last time I saw you, you meant so much more to me, and I still don't understand why. But all I can say to you right now is that I hope you are happy and well taken care of, and that you will be missed a whole lot and not just by me, but from a whole lot of people that knew you. Because you were a very special person, and always will be remembered as so.

From your niece Cathy

STONEHOUSE - In loving memory of J. Walter Stonehouse, who passed away January 21, 1988. Although we smile and make no fuss, No one misses him more than us. And when old times we oft recall, That's when we miss him most of all. There is a link death cannot sever, Love and remembrance last forever. Always remembered and truly missed, Pat, Nancy, Judy and Tommy
