IN MEMORIAM

GOBEIL (née Duheme) Shirley - In loving memory of my darling daughter, and Rene's mommy, who courageously fought for her life until the Lord came for her on January 20, 1993 in Heaven she sleeps. Shirley, honey, Mommy has

So much to say,
So I'll speak to you
From my heart today,
I still can't believe,
That you are gone,
But I know your Will,
Will help me to carry on.
You had so much to bear,
And would never show it,
When I was there.
You would flash that
Big smile my way,
Words, could never express

What our eyes would say,
It's so hard to hide
The way I felt,
You would smile again,
And my heart would melt,
You would give courage

To all others,
And give a little extra
To me, your Mother.
Always concerned,
"How's everyone else",
Never revealing your feelings about yourself.

Everyone else came first in your life,
That was just one of many qualities

Of you, a mother and wife,
Shirley, honey, I don't know when
I'll let you go,
Mommy loves you and misses,
Her little girl, (Tetoe).
Forever remembered by your smile and by your 3 words, "Not Too Bad"
Sleep in Heavenly peace, honey. Your Mommy and son Rene.

STEWART, Margaret - In loving memory of a dear lady who passed away January 23rd, 1974.

Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days,
Sincere and true in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.

J. Claude DeCosse

TOLHURST, Nellie - In loving memory of a dear mother, grandmother and great grandmother who passed away January 26, 1988. Silent thoughts of years together, Loving memories will last forever.

Norma and Bob,
John, Anne and family
Bob, Thyra and family

James White remembered

The Valleyfield community was greatly saddened by the sudden death of one of its oldest English residents, James White, on December 10, at his residence in Valleyfield.

The funeral service was held on Sunday, Dec. 13, at 2:30 p.m. in the Chapel of J.A. Larin & Fils on Danis St.

Jim was born in Valleyfield, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George White.

Early this century, before the day of the refrigerator, his father was the local "ice man", and his mother was a teacher at the Gault Institute which, of course, Jim and his siblings attended.

After finishing school, Jim was employed for a short time at the old Montreal Cottons, and then at the Zephyr Textiles in Ormstown. He also spent a few years in Ontario and Ormstown.

He married the former Margaret Todd of Ormstown, and the couple raised two children, Ross and Connie.

In later years Jim became a local insurance broker, and through the business he became well-acquainted with many people in this area.

During his retirement years, Jim loved to travel, and had visited many parts of Canada and the U.S., including Alaska.

Sadly, he was predeceased by his beloved wife, Margaret, and three siblings, brother George, and sisters, Laura, and Elsie (Clifford).

The Valleyfield community extends deepest sympathy to his bereaved family: son Ross and wife, Pam, of Nanaimo, B.C.; daughter, Connie and husband, Gary Austin, of Pointe Claire; grandchildren Jeffrey, Marcia, Randall, Deborah and Garrett; and great-granddaughter, Megan.

Jim will be sadly missed.
