CARD OF THANKS

The level six staff and students of Huntingdon Academy wish to thank the 400 people who supported their spaghetti supper fundraiser on Jan. 26. This excellent community participation shows our young people we live in a caring, supportive community. We could not have done it without you.

I would like to thank all the staff of the 2nd floor at the Huntingdon County Hospital for their loving care of Andy during his stay there. He is now at the Centre D'Accueil in Ormstown and would be pleased to see visitors.

Mary McGerrigle and family.

I would like to thank both hospitals, Barrie Memorial and the Valleyfield Hospital for wonderful ambulance service. Also wish to express appreciation and thanks for excellent care given my husband while a patient there. A special thanks to all those who included me in my prayers, remembered me with visits, phone calls, cards, baskets of fruit and gifts. A thank you to all those lovely people who offered ride to hospital and helped my wife so much at the time of my illness. Please accept this as a thank you to you all and God bless you all.

Sincerely Love,
Lyll Stark
