60th wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hooker

Ormstown's Walshaven Community Center looked a bit like a florist shop or a garden on Sunday, Sept. 4, when a 60th anniversary party was held for Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hooker, who were married on September 1, 1934 at the Ormstown Presbyterian Church, Rev. Walter Ross officiating.

The organist on that day was Mrs. Walter Ross, and Helen Ross (Jewell) played violin music during the signing of the register. The matron of honor was Dorothy Darby (Hawley). Heather Hooker (Morrison) was the flower girl; the best man was Walter Beattie and the ushers were math McKell and Marshall Hooker.

The newly-weds honeymooned by taking a boat trip up the Saguenay River. When they returned there was a reception at Barr's Hall, on the Lower Concession Road. The Hookers have lived in the same house for all of the 60 years.

400 at party

Many beautiful flower arrangements decorated the hall, and the sunny day added to the setting.

The bride wore a printed dress with a corsage of miniature yellow roses, and the groom had a white carnation on his jacket.

As the approximately 400 guests arrived, they were invited to sign the guest book and enjoy a glass of punch on their way to congratulate the honored couple.

Small tables were set with blue and printed cloths and tiny bouquets of yellow flowers. The tea table was attractive with a decorated wedding cake topped with a small vase of flowers, (the same one used on the wedding cake 60 years ago); yellow candles and two matching arrangements of yellow and white flowers.

Tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. Isabel Kerr, Mrs. Ruth towns, Mrs. Fran White, Mrs. Genevieve Glover, Mrs. Norma Marshall, Mrs. Heather Morrison, Mrs. Isabel Cavers, Mrs. Marjorie Finlayson, Mrs. Bertha Greig and Mrs. Jennie Rember.

The guests were served by the Hookers' eight grandchildren, with sandwiches and sweets prepared by the Presbyterian Evening Adult Group.

Family members present were Lyndon Hooker and family, Derton, Shawn and Julie and Kim from Toronto; Mary Catherine (Trinkie) and Garth Coffin and their family, Judy, Brian and Tricia of Vankleek Hill, Ont.; and Alanne and David Kee and daughters Vanessa and Christina of Toronto.

Guests who signed the book were from Ottawa, Kemptville, Toronto, Pierrefonds, Pointe Claire, Chambly, Que.,

Vankleek Hill, Ont., Lachute, Prescott, Ont., Stanbridge East, Que, Hawkesbury, Ont. as well from the local area.

The honored couple received flowers, phone calls, letters and many, many cards; it all added up to a very happy celebration. We wish them more anniversaries to celebrate together.

IN MEMORIAM

VAILLANCOURT, Roger - In memory of our friend Roger who left us September 13, 1993.

When we look back As we often do We cherish the memories We have of you Gone are the days We used to share But in our hearts You're always there. We miss you - Lillian, Bobby, Sheila and Marvin VAILLANCOURT, Roger - In loving memory of a dear father who passed away one year ago today September 13, 1993.

I was thinking of you today Dad But that is nothing new I thought about you yesterday And the day before that too

I struggle with the tears again To prove that I am strong When no one knows my pain

And how hard it is to carry on

I love you and miss you Your loving daughter Tammy

VAILLANCOURT, Roger - In loving memory of my dear husband and best friend who passed away September 13, 1993.

We made our vows together And said "Till death do us part"

So when God came and took your hand

My whole life fell apart No one knows the heartache I've tried so hard to hide

No one knows how many times I've broken down and cried When I look back upon our lives

Just one thing makes me glad

That you chose me to share with you

The precious years we had

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by your wife Doreen

VAILLANCOURT, Roger - In loving memory of a dear stepfather and "Gramps" who passed away September 13, 1993.

God, please take a message to Roger up above Tell him we miss him and give him our love

Sadly missed and always remembered by Jane, Claude, Jonathan and Kayla
