CARD OF THANKS

Following the fire which occurred on January 17, 1998, we wish to thank the Hinchinbrooke firemen for their efficiency and great dedication. Thanks also to all those who brought us comfort.

Marguerite Décloitre & Family

We would like to express our thanks & gratitude to the following people. To Mrs. Marge Babineau and her crew; to Mr. André Brunette for his personal visits to our residences, for his offers of assistance and for his instrumental part in having Les Entreprises Electric Jean-Guy Lafontaine Contractor restore our power and putting our roads on the map. Also to the Hydro crews who have worked so diligently.

Shona Scott, Donald Powley, Jean-Pierre Thibodeau, Robert Gravell of the Taylor and Mink Valley Roads in Hinchinbrooke.

Thank-you

The family of the late Sandra Hurteau would like to thank the doctors, nurses and the staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital for the excellent care and attention given to her; as well as the personnel of the Huntingdon CLSC.

We would also like to thank friends and relatives and all those who sent donations, cards and supported us during her illness. A special thank you to Diane and Margaret, all was greatly appreciated.

The Hurteau and O'Hara Family
