CARD OF THANKS

A heartfelt "thank you" to all our relatives, friends and neighbors for all the support we have received during the sickness and since the death of my sister Jessie (Tannahill) Sutton. Also to all the people who helped and supported Jessie, Harold and Carol all winter. You are all very special people to us.

Gladys & George Renaud

Sincerest thanks to my family and friends who helped me celebrate my "40th" birthday. Your cards, gifts and good wishes will be treasured forever.

Beverley Watson

We wish to sincerely thank all who helped us during our recent tragedy. Your expressions of sympathy and support were much appreciated.

Hugh Sutherland, Jeannie Rosenberg & Sara

IN MEMORIAM

DeREPENTIGNY, Lucien & Bernadette - In loving memory of Dad who passed away March 18, 1986 and Mom who passed away March 19, 1997.

We gave you life, but cannot live it for you.

We can teach you things, but we cannot make you learn.

We can give you directions, but we cannot be there to lead you.

We can allow you freedom, but we cannot account for it.

We can take you to church, but we cannot make you believe.

We can teach you right from wrong, but we cannot always decide for you.

We can buy you beautiful clothes, but we cannot make you beautiful inside.

We can offer you advice, but we cannot accept it for you.

We can give you love, but we cannot force it upon you.

We can teach you to share, but we cannot make you unselfish.

We can teach you respect, but we cannot force you to show honor.

We can advise you about friends, but we cannot choose them for you.

We can warn you about drugs, but we can't prevent you from using them.

We can tell you about lofty goals, but we can't achieve them for you.

We can teach you about kindness, but we can't force you to be gracious.

We can warn you about sins, but we cannot make your morals.

We can love you as a child, but we cannot place you in God's family.

We can pray for you, but we cannot make you walk with God.

We had the privilege of having you as our parents. Praise be to God.

Your children

DeREPENTIGNY, Lucien - March 18, 1986

DeREPENTIGNY, Bernadette - March 19, 1998

In loving memory of dearly loved parents and grandparents

God needed special angels

Gentle, loving and kind

And so he chose you, Mom & Dad

And left us all behind.

The tears we shed are many

Our hearts are filled with pain

But our loss upon this earth

Was surely heaven's gain.

Life goes on we know it's true

But it's not the same since we lost you.

Love you for always
