DIED

LAVERTY, Doris Armstrong (née Woods) - Died quietly in Ormstown on March 6, 2008. Doris was born in Welsford, N.B. September 27, 1905, daughter of the late Harry Woods and Hannah Gorham. Pre-deceased by her husband Clarence Laverty. Her children, Susan (Sally), Richard (Wendy) and Hannah (Kenny), grandchildren, great grandchildren and loving friends are left with holes in their hearts, but treasured memories of a marvelous lady who lived an amazing life. A memorial service will be held at the McGerrigle Funeral Home, Ormstown on Saturday, March 29 at 2:00 p.m. Donations to the Barrie Memorial Hospital, Ormstown or a charity of choice will be gratefully acknowledged by her family.

BORN

PEDDIE-TREMBLAY - Brent and Vicky are happy to announce the birth of their second daughter Madison Marie, born on March 3, 2008. A nice little sister for Mackenzie May and proud grandparents are Ross and Nancy Peddie of Fertile Creek, Howick and Ludger and Denise Tremblay of Ste-Martine. Great grandmother is Odette Tremblay.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank Doctors Gaspard, Lemieux and Hébert and the staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital for the good care and for the good meals I received while I was a patient. Also to Father-Gabriel Clément, a big thank-you.

Mrs. Paul-André Galipeau

Many thanks to the Doctors, Nurses and Physio staff of the Barrie Memorial for the excellent care which I received as a patient. I also wish to express my gratitude to my family and friends for their great support with visits, phone calls, cards, etc. All was very much appreciated.

Ersine McClintock

GAUTHIER, Arthur (1932-2008) - Juliette Gauthier, her children and grandchildren would like to extend their sincere thanks to everyone who expressed their sympathy at the time of Mr. Gauthier's death on February 6, 2008 at the age of 75 years, either with mass cards, cards, donations to the Diabetic Association or their presence at the funeral. A special thank-you to Father Gabriel Clément, Dr. Jean-Pierre Hébert and the staff at the Barrie Memorial Hospital.
