The memories we share of you
Mean more to us each day
The little things you used to do

No better could be found
So rest in peace with the Lord
You earned the rest you found."

Fanny Hill dies

In March of this year, family and friends celebrated the 100th birthday of Barrington native Fanny Hill. Many of the residents of the Barrington-Hemmingford area shared in the joy of that momentous occasion. They now extend their sympathy and share in the sadness of the Hill family at the death of Fanny Hill.

Fanny (Orr) Hill was born in Barrington on March 9, 1884. She was one of the nine children of Mr. and Mrs. John Orr of Fisher Road. In 1914 she married Thomas Hill, a native of England, and they settled on a farm on what is now Route 219, in Barrington. Following Mr. Hill's death in 1958, Fanny lived with her son Melville and his wife Hazel until 1983 when she took up residence at the Foyer Hebert in Huntingdon.

Mrs. Hill passed away at the Hebert Home on Tuesday, April 24. Funeral Services were held at St. Andrew's United Church in Hemmingford on April 26. The pall bearers were Barrington residents: Alan Fisher, Harry Davis, Fred Orr, Hugh Orr, Aldred Smith and Ivan Seller. Following the service family members and close friends returned to the home of Melville and Hazel Hill.

Mrs. Hill is survived by her son Melville, her grandsons Douglas, Gordon, Charles and Allan; nine great grandchildren, one great great grandchild and several nieces and nephews. She will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved her.
