All are saddened by sudden death of Mary Macfarlane

All those who knew Mary Macfarlane of Huntingdon were saddened by her sudden death on November 23, 1984.

She lived a life of service to her family and friends. She leaves us all with memories of her sterling qualities. She maintained her own convictions, but was kindly tolerant of the opinions of others.

She worked tirelessly for St. Andrews Church for several years.

Following her retirement from the business office of the Huntingdon County Hospital, she continued to act as treasurer of the Foundation Fund. She was also the treasurer of the McCrimmon scholarship fund of St. Andrew's Church. She was blessed with a wonderful memory and a natural business ability.

Her funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Ross MacKay of Montreal in St. Andrew's Church. Burial was in Elgin Church Cemetery.

She was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D.A. Macfarlane of Elgin.

She leaves to mourn her loss her brothers and their wives - Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Macfarlane and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Macfarlane, and several nieces and nephews.
