"Our little man"

Life is full of tragedies, most everyone will say,
But the one that hit our little town, will stay for many a day,
It took our little Philip, when his life was just begun,
And why do these things happen, when angels are so young?
Philip came to our house often, always smiling, happy, gay,
And he always seemed to cheer us, in his little loving way.
He was known at our house, as "our little man",
And Philip we're goin' miss you, as much as anyone can.
As I sit here alone, with tears in my eyes,
You were so much like one of my own,
It sure is a mystery, way over my head -
Only God knows why you have gone.
Mom and Dad - though Philip's gone,
Your lives must still go on,
You'll remember the smile and big blues eyes,
And think of him as a song!
He's safe in the Arms of Jesus,
No more sickness, fright or pain,
And think on the words of the psalmist,
We'll all be together again, God Bless!
To Jim and Robin
in memory of Philip
