Edith Thomson
Franklin Centre

My sincere thanks to everyone who was so kind and helpful to me, Ken and Earle while I was a patient in the Barrie Memorial Hospital. Thanks to Dr. Geukjian, Dr. Thompson, Miss Bruce and Mrs. Greer and all her nursing people on 2 floor. I appreciated many visits from Rev. Carmichael, Rev. Bannerman, Rev. Caglin and Father Beaulieu. Thanks to relatives and friends for visiting me, for cards, letters, flowers and gifts. All helped pass the long hours in hospital. It is a warm and happy feeling to know I have so many friends. Thank you all.

Myrtle MacDonald

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our sincere thanks to Dr. Alkin, Dr. Vantor and Dr. Feder, the nursing staff of the O.R. and maternity, for the excellent care shown to us while we were at the Barrie, to our families, relatives, friends and neighbors, for the beautiful flowers, cards and visits. All were greatly appreciated. Thanks a million for everything.

IN MEMORIAM

ROBERTS, Joseph Gordon - In loving memory of Joseph Gordon Roberts, who passed away March 15, 1984. Just a tribute of love and remembrance To a husband and father, who was one of the best. The joys that he missed on life's Highway, may he find in God's garden of rest. In loving memory his wife Lillian, his sons and family.

VAILLANCOURT, Armand - In loving memory of a dear son and brother, who passed away March 11, 1984. Your end was very sudden your departure made us cry. But the saddest part is you never said Goodbye. We cherish now the memory of yesterday and you. Sadly missed by his Mother, Sisters, Brothers and family.

The late Lynwood A. Cookman

The community was shocked and saddened to learn of the death of Lynwood Cookman at the Barrie Memorial Hospital in Ormstown on Friday, Jan. 23, 1987.

He was born in Henrysburg, Que. on March 19, 1916 to William Slack Cookman and his wife Jessie Hannah Elvidge.

Lynwood Cookman was united in marriage to Doris Irene Holbrook of Island Brook, Que. on July 31, 1937, and from this union two sons were born, Raymond of Hemmingford, and William of Montreal.

Mr. Cookman was employed by W. Keddy and Son for approximately 35 years, served on the School Board, and was a Director on the Havelock Fair Board. He was an Elder in St. Andrew's United Church for 40 years and Secretary of Hemmingford Masonic Lodge for 30 years. Also he was Secretary of Victory Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, for a number of years, and in 1981 was elected to the office of Worthy Grand Patron.

Besides his wife, he leaves to mourn his death, his sons Raymond and his wife Gloria, William and his wife Sandra, and three granddaughters Cara, Sharon and Sarah. As well as his sisters Thelma (Mrs. Akester), Evelyn (Mrs. Hadley), Edna (Mrs. Jackson), Laura (Mrs. Edwards), and his brother Kenneth and his wife Jean.

The remains rested at the J.M. Sharpe Funeral Home in Hemmingford where friends and relatives called on Sunday and Monday. The Order of the Eastern Star and Hemmingford Masonic Lodge each held their Service on Monday evening and these services were very largely attended testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The funeral service was held at St. Andrew's United Church on Tuesday, Jan. 27 with Rev. Skippon officiating, assisted by Rev. Eason, Rosemary Cowan, and Father Daoust. With Carol Bye at the organ the following hymns were sung: "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" and "All The Way My Saviour Leads Me".

The bearers were Donald Orr, Norman Akester, Robert Curry, Gerald Ellerton, Victor Anderson, and Edwin Keddy.

Relatives who attended from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mackay from Sawyerville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burns from Island Brook. Many attended from Montreal, Chateauguay and the surrounding area.
