Harold Steele lived 87 years in Rockburn

Thursday, July 9, 1987 the Rockburn community was saddened to learn of the passing of one of its longest residing citizens, Harold Stanley Steele had been a resident for all of his 87 years.

Born and raised on the Steele family farm on the Rockburn-Dewittville Sideroad, he received his education at the Rockburn School. Upon completion he continued the work on the farm of his parents as well as planting 500 apple trees, as many people in the area were becoming fruit growers.

Harold never did travel too far from home, although around 1918 he did travel west for the grain excursions which he took part in twice. He was an avid ballplayer and played with the Rockburn team for many years. In his later life he followed with interest the major leagues of both baseball and hockey.

Harold was a proud Masonic Lodge for over 60 years. He was an avid reader; and took an interest in current events both those close to home and internationally.

He leaves to mourn, his devoted wife, Rita and will be sadly missed by his children, Mona, Fay, Donna, Darlene, April,

The late Harold Steele

Laura, Irene, Joyce, Larry, Alex and grandchildren as well as many nieces, nephews, neighbours and friends.

Funeral service was held July 11, 1987 at the Presbyterian Church. Reverend Gordon Bannerman led the service. "Amazing Grace" was sung by Howard Welburn and a moving eulogy given by Fred Goodrow. Jeff Blair, church organist played many of Harold's favorite songs among which "Beautiful Dreamer" "How Great Thou Art" carried much sentimental value for family and friends.

Interment was at Hillside Cemetery and later refreshments were provided by the Rockburn Presbyterian Ladies Aid at the family farm.

Pallbearers were John Steele, Bradley Steele, Russell Brooks, Herb Simpson, Fred Goodrow and Peter Drouin.

"He went from us quietly, his thoughts unknown. But he left us with memories we are proud to own. So cherish him Lord, in your garden of rest. For when on earth he was one of the best."

Mr. & Mrs. Robert W. Akester

60th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Akester, Roxham Road, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on June 4, 1987. Mae Smith, daughter of Phillip Smith and Maggie Elliott, married Robert William Akester, son of Julius Akester and the late Maud Elvidge in Roxham. They have three children, Edward of Roxham, Maud (Mrs. Andy Kennedy), and Elsie (Mrs. Bill Swarner), both of Cayce, South Carolina. They also have six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. A small dinner was held at their home with their children, son-in-law Andy, granddaughter, Linnie Swarner of Columbia, S.C., and Ruby Smith, Mae's sister, who was bridesmaid, attending.
