

The late Daniel Egan

Suddenly in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, on October 24, 1987, Daniel (Dannie) Egan, aged 49, of Caledon Village, Ont.

Born in Valleyfield on July 14, 1938, he was the son of Maurice and Eva Cronshaw Egan, both deceased.

He is survived by his wife, Deborah Doupe, two sons, Thomas of Brampton, Ont. Christopher of Chateaugay, Que., a daughter Lori Ann of Malton, Ont.

Also survived by two sisters, Constance (Mrs. Richard Browgoisske), Plattsburgh, N.Y. Sharon (Mrs. Christopher Santry), Centerport, Long Island, N.Y. two brothers, Maurice of Cranbury, N.J. and Kevin, St. Sauveur, Que. He was also the nephew of Phyllis Sweet and Stella McCaun, of Chateaugay, N.Y.

The funeral service was on October 28 at Lee Funeral Home, Streetsville. Interment in Meadowvale Cemetery.

The late Angus McNaughton

A long-time resident of Hinchinbrooke passed away in the Huntingdon County Hospital on Sunday morning Sept. 27, 1987.

Angus was born at Fertile Valley Farm on Dec. 3, 1895. He was a well known farmer on Boyd Settlement Road for many years. He was married to Mary Imogene Paul on Sept. 29, 1920; she predeceased him in May 1960.

Through the years he was always very active in the community, serving on the Hinchinbrooke School Board, and also on the municipal council for 4 years, as well as being mayor for 10 years.

He was a faithful member of Huntingdon United Church - serving several terms as Elder from 1927 to 1955.

He was married to Margaret Pearce in 1961.

He leaves to mourn his loss, three daughters, Helen (Mrs. Floyd Arthur) Dorothy (Mrs. Donald McCaig) Shirley (Mrs. Harold Stark) and daughter-in-law Elizabeth. There are 15 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren. His son Douglas predeceased him in 1974.

The funeral service was held from Kelly's Funeral Home on Sept. 29 with Rev. Neil Wallace officiating. At this service a very fitting tribute was read by David Rennie and the presence of many friends and relatives at the service showed the respect in which the deceased was held in the community.

The pallbearers were his grandsons, Lorne McNaughton, Murray McCaig, Fred McNaughton, Bradley Arthur, Richard Arthur, and Bruce McNaughton.

The late Howard Brown

by Florence Ellerton

Relatives and friends were saddened by the death of Howard Alexander Brown of Wasaga Beach Ontario. He passed away suddenly at the General and Marine Hospital, Collingwood, Ont. on October 30, 1987.

Howard was born in Hemmingford on April 29, 1927. He was the son of the late John Brown and Ethel Napper. Dear companion of Gwen Eberhardt and former husband and friend of Eileen Davis. He was the dear father of Glenn of Wasaga Beach, Terry of Elmvalle and Donna (Mrs. Charles Wylie) of Orangeville and he will be lovingly remembered by his six grandchildren.

He also leaves to mourn his four brothers Edwin, Albert, and Brian Brown of Howick and Kenneth of Sussex, New Brunswick; 12 sisters: Alice Wilson, Ormstown; Ruby Middlemiss, Huntingdon; Dorothy Campbell, Hemmingford; Hazel Myatt, Malone, N.Y.; Eileen Campbell, Hemmingford; Irma MacPherson, Dundee; Florence Ellerton, Hemmingford; Marjorie Bell, Elmvalle, Ont; Margaret Robertson, Riverfield; Eleanor Baird, Calgary, Alta; Sylvia Ismond, Ottawa, Ont; and Heather Mitchell of Riverfield as well as many nieces and nephews.

This is the first break in this large family and he will be greatly missed; 10 of his sisters and brothers were able to attend the funeral. Howard left home at an early age working in Quebec and in Ontario. He worked on the farm of Lyle Gilmore in St. Chrysostome for several years and then returned to Wasaga Beach. At the time of his untimely death he was employed by the Ministry of Natural Resources at Wasaga Beach. The remains rested at the Lynn Funeral Home, Elmvalle, where friends and relatives called on Sunday with the service held in the chapel on Monday, Nov. 2 at 2 p.m. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Heart and Stroke Foundation.

The pallbearers were three of his brothers Edwin, Albert and Brian with three of his close friends.
