CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Nellie Tolhurst wish to express sincere thanks to Drs. Thompson and Stalker, the nurses and staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital for the gentle care given to our Mother during her illness. Thank you to those who visited the Funeral Home and to those who assisted with the funeral service in any way. Thank you also to friends and neighbours for your support and expressions of sympathy during our time of bereavement.

Anne and John Logan
Norma and Bob Butlers
Robert and Thyra Tolhurst

I would like to thank the emergency staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital, Dr. Brissette, Dr. Thompson, Dr. Aiken and the nursing staff, for their kindness during my recent stay there. Also to my many friends and Club members, for cards, visits and sympathy. Thank you for your kindness.

Gerry Hebert

Mr. Harrison Valencourt and family would like to extend their sincere thanks to everyone, for their kind expressions of sympathy at the time of death of a dear wife and mother, Mary-Jane, at the age of 63 on Jan. 22 1988. We would also like to thank the staff in Ormstown and Valleyfield hospital for their kindness, while she was there, and to visitors who came to the funeral home and to Milton Sharpe for his kindness and understanding and to Father Carl Triskle for the lovely service he gave, and to anyone we might have missed. Thanks so very much.

I wish to thank the staffs of Huntingdon, Valleyfield and St-Luc (Montréal) hospitals for the care given Mr. Henri Vaillancourt, who died at the Valleyfield hospital in January. Thank you also to the ambulance service. A mass will be celebrated on January 19, 1989 in St. Joseph Church, Huntingdon.

Notes of Sympathy

The Valleyfield community has again been saddened following the unexpected death of Lawrence (Larry) James Clifford, at the age of 64 years on Tuesday, Jan. 26 at the Montreal General Hospital.

Although residing in the Cornwall area, Larry has been a popular figure in the Valleyfield community for many years.

He was employed by Schenley Distillery in

Valleyfield for many years, however more recently and at the time of his death, he was an employee of EX-PRO Ltd., in Nitro.

The funeral was held on Friday, Jan. 29 in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Cornwall, Ont., with Father Roger Steinke officiating.

Interment will be in Ormstown in the spring.

The community extends deepest sympathy to his beloved wife Doris (née Stewart), daughter Lori
