Sauvé-Lynch wedding

After two days of the worst blizzard we have had for many years, Sunday morning, February 14, 1988, St Valentine's Day, although still very windy, was a bright sunny day, which those who were looking forward to the Sauvé-Lynch afternoon wedding were very happy to see. All relatives and close friends from Ontario had made the trip safely.

At the home of the groom's aunt Marie - Mr. and Mrs. A. Davidson of Howick, David Mark Sauvé, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Sauvé of Howick was united in marriage to Sheryl Ann Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Lynch of Morrow Bay, California, USA. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. Cogswell of Howick United Church.

Bride and groom were dressed alike in winter white tuxedos, with pink ties and cummerbunds. The bride, given away by Mr. John Odo of Mississauga, Ont. carried a spray of roses and baby's breath. The matron of honor, Ms Odo of Mississauga, Ont. wore a pale yellow embossed silk dress and corsage of white and yellow carnations.

The best man was Mr. Ross Laurie of Dorval. The men wore boutonnières of white carnations.

Mrs. Sauvé, the groom's mother, wore an empire blue dress and corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Stuart MacDonald, the groom's grandmother wore a costume of pinks and brown with corsage of carnations.

After the ceremony, congratulations and best wishes were showered on the newlyweds - followed by a delicious buffet supper. The wedding cake had been made by the groom's mother and decorated by Mrs. L. Brown.

A number of relatives and friends from Ontario and Quebec were in attendance.

Later, Mr. and Mrs Sauvé returned to their now home in Mississauga, Ont. where Mark is employed.
