IN MEMORIAM

BIDWELL, Kathleen - In loving memory of a dear wife who passed away, May 9th, 1987.

There's comforting thought at the close of the day When I'm weary and lonely and sad.

That sort of grips hold of my crusty old heart and bids it be merry and glad. It gets in my soul and it drives out the blues, And finally thrills through and through

It is just a sweet memory that chants the refrain:

"I'm glad I touched shoulders with you."

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered, your loving husband Walter and family.

DUROCHER-LEBLANC, Leona - In loving memory of our mom and grandma who passed away May 9th, 1988.

We miss you, And your love will always see us through

Dearly remembered by Ken, Leona, Floyd and family.

FRASER, Margaret A. - In loving memory of Margaret A. Fraser May 5th, 1989. Thanks to Rev. N. Wallace.

"Way down the river A hundred miles or more Some other kids

Will bring my boat to shore"

Quite by R.L. Stevenson. By her loving grandchildren Jackson, Sarah and David.

GALIPEAU - In memory of a dear mother and father who passed away May 9th and May 27th, 1988.

Sadly missed and always remembered by your loving daughter.

Mrs. Denise (Galipeau) Ouimet

RUSSELL LEBLANC, Mabel - In loving memory of a grandma and great grandma who passed away May 11th, 1988.

You will always be remembered and treasured dearly. Dearly remembered by Ken, Leona, Floyd and family.

A tribute to Ethel White

The following words were spoken by the Rev. Lance Weisser at the funeral service in memory of Mrs. White, on Thursday, May 4th:

"Today we are here to pay tribute to a wife and mother and grandmother and writer who never tired of seeking after wisdom. Ethel was curious, and Ethel took a spritely and delighted interest in whatever was going on around her. She never tired of learning about life. Often her own source of wisdom lay in contemplating the Bible and in being with her family. She always indicated to me that she had an enormous faith in those she loved.

She was deeply devoted to this town, and to its newspaper -- and most especially to her late husband, Red, and to her children and grandchildren. Ethel White will be very much missed by all of us."

A poem entitled, Mediation, from her book "Not so Bright the Flame" was then read aloud:

It's funny how the threads of life
As a spider's web are spun;
Around and 'round mid fun and strife
And then our work is done.

With back slight bent from overload,
Admiring eyes gaze down
That rocky path of dusty road,
We passed to gain this crown.

And now we've won, it's nearly time
To bid this world adieu;
For all our toil we've lived sublime
For but a day or two.

Methinks, though, that this task of ours
Will count for much on High;
We'll start on top mid sun and flowers
Together, you and I.
