Helen and Sterling Stevenson wed

by Darleen Sabetta

With the sun shining and amid the fragrance of apple blossoms, Helen Stevenson and Sterling Stevenson were united in marriage on May 20, 1989 at the Franklin United Church, officiated by Rev. Oliver Carmichael.

Helen was given away by her youngest brother, Gregory Stevenson of Winnipeg, Manitoba and her daughter, Sandra St. Onge of Valleyfield.

Norman Stevenson stood as the groom's Best Man.

Among the guests in the wedding party were Helen's eldest brother Lewis Stevenson of Georgetown, Ontario; her Godmother Alda Barrie and Mr. & Mrs. Ross Barrie with family, all of Bros-sard, Quebec.

Guests on Sterling's side included Mrs. Roy Stevenson; Mr. & Mrs. Norman Stevenson with family; Mr. & Mrs. John Forget with family and Mr. & Mrs. Alan Howie and family.

Also in attendance were several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Following the ceremony, pictures were taken by Anne Schulman and the U.C.W. catered and served an excellent turkey dinner to the wedding party.

Helen and Sterling will enjoy a honeymoon trip to Winnipeg, Manitoba to visit her parents at a later date.
