A tribute to my sister

by Isabel Elder

My sister, Martha Davidson Currie, died quietly in her sleep on Monday morning, January 29. She was a patient in the Golden Years Nursing Home in Cambridge, Ont. and had been in failing health for the last few years.

Martha loved her home community of Dundee, and always kept a special place in her heart for one and all. One time when she had been taken to an extra special Christmas program in the Home where she was staying, her daughter, June, said to her, "There now, Mother, you must have enjoyed that," and Martha replied, in all seriousness "I've been better in Dundee!" and she meant it, too.

Martha possessed a generous spirit, with a warm and outgoing personality. She made friends wherever she went and could always see the humorous side of a situation.

Martha was 83 years old, but with her high colour sparkling blue eyes and infectious smile, always looked and acted much younger. She was a great favourite with nieces and nephews, who will cherish the memory of Aunt Martha.

Her home was always open whether i be in Dundee, the Fort, Bombay or, Huntingdon and many the meal she shared with others in her hospitable kitchen.

We will miss Martha, but we're confident that she is happy and at rest in the Heaven she has believed in all these years. She is released from the suffering she endured, and has been reunited with the loved ones who have gone before. "A lovely person has left us, but so many beautiful memories remain."

MORRICE, Alice (Fewtrell) - On February 12, 1990, at the Almonte Nursing Home, Almonte, Ontario, in her 81st year. Beloved wife of the late Albert W. Morrice, dear sister of John Fewtrell of Montreal, George Fewtrell of Toronto, Mildred (Douglas Lockhart) of Howick and Midge (Mrs. A.W. Gunn) of Almonte, Ontario. Visitation at the McGerrigle Funeral Home Inc., Ormstown on Wednesday, February 14, 7 to 9 p.m. Funeral service from the chapel on Thursday at 2 p.m. Interment Georgetown Cemetery.
