

Carol Brooks Poirier, 51, passes away

Carol J. Brooks Poirier, 51, of 162 Lost Nation Road, died Monday, December 11, 1989 at the Barrie Memorial Hospital in Ormstown.

Born in Malone, N.Y. Dec. 30, 1937, she was the daughter of Harold and Marion Premo Brooks.

A graduate of Franklin Academy, she worked several years at Pearl's Department Store in Malone.

On May 6, 1966 she was married to André J. Poirier of Huntingdon in St. Francis of Assisi Church in Constable. This union was blessed with 2 children, Eric and Michelle.

She was a devoted employee of the Huntingdon Shoe Store for the last nine years. Carol was a member of St. Joseph's School Committee in the past years, served as a church warden at St. Patrick's Church in Herdman where she was a parishioner. She had made many friends in this area because she was always ready and willing to help anyone in need.

Surviving are her husband, André, daughter Michelle of Cornwall, Ont., her son Eric, a brother James Brooks of Malone, N.Y.; a sister Phyllis (Mrs. Joseph Rousel) of Westville, N.Y., several nieces and nephews.

Calling hours were held Tuesday, Dec. 12 in the Rodrigue Montpetit Funeral Home. Funeral services were held Dec. 13, in Herdman Catholic Church with Father Marciel officiating. Readings were done by Michelle and Eric Poirier. Music was by the local choir. Pall bearers were Terry Shaw, Alain Daoust, Raymond Taillefer, James L. Brooks, Barry Rousel and Michael Rousel.