CARD OF THANKS

As we mourn Cecil's passing, we find comfort in the knowledge that his final months were spent at the Barrie Memorial Hospital where he was attended by nurses who had endeared themselves to him. Their kindness and their efficiency will provide us with a lasting memory. During the past two years, we have, experienced, also, other examples of professionalism in its excellence, demonstrated by the personnel in whose care Cecil was placed: to such dedicated people as Dr. Raymond Lemieux, his physician; to his therapists, Mrs. Jacob and Madame Sylvie Mahieu of Ormstown and Denise Loisel of Huntingdon; to the C.L.S.C.: Madame Agathe Brisebois and her staff, in particular Judy Tremblay for her competent, genial, and almost daily attention, we express our most sincere appreciation. In addition, the generosity of Archie and Grace Lewin, and Florence McNaughton in giving of their time and support were invaluable factors in maintaining Cecil's well being. And last but far from least, to our "next door" neighbours, friends, relatives, members of the Masonic Lodge, and the clergy: Mr. Wallace and Mr. Carmichael, we extend our gratitude for the cheer their visits brought to Cecil.

The Brown Family

Our sincere thanks to friends, neighbors and relatives who expressed their sympathy during the recent loss of a dear husband and father. Thank you very much for the beautiful flowers, masses, cards, food, donations to the Barrie Memorial Hospital. Thank you to all who in one way or another shared our great pain. To the doctors and members of the nursing staff of the 2nd and 3rd floor of the Barrie Memorial Hospital a very, very special thank you for the loving care that was given to Kris during his stay there. Please accept this as a personal thank you.

Tribute to Cecil Brown

by a friend

He was first and foremost a gentleman, and, a retired officer from Canada Immigration.

He had two loves in his life; Number 1, his family, wife Marion and two sons, James and William; and Number 2, his game of golf.

Cecil loved to golf, and even when his health was poor, he still had hope that better days might lie ahead.

he was a generous man who will be missed in his community. He was a member of the Chateauquay Lodge, the United Church and the Craft and Recreation Center.

We will always remember Cecil for his humour, for he always had a joke for every occasion.

His motto was "Smile, it's good for you". A fond memory of a good friend.
