IN MEMORIAM

CAIRNS, Cecil - In loving memory of a dear brother who died June 24, 1989. Remembering you is so easy. We do that everyday. Missing you is the heartache. That never goes away. Always remembered by your loving sisters and brothers-in-law, Charles, Beatrice & Hazel & Dan.

COGSWELL, Ruth - In memory of Ruth Cogswell, who died tragically September 25th, 1985 aged 23 years. "The bread of love and friendship the wine of joy and laughter the riches of imagination and creativity, all these are gifts of the spirit. All these you possessed in abundance and freely gave to us who loved you, and remember you with love." Mom, Dad, Mark, Fiona and Alex

DONALD (TINY) RAITHBY
September 26th, 1987
You're not forgotten Father dear,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory last,
I shall remember thee.

What would I give to clasp
your hand,
Your happy face to see,
To hear your voice and see
that smile,
Would mean so much to me.

There is a link that death
cannot sever
Love and remembrance
last forever.

Lovingly remembered
Donna

Athelstan's Grace Rowat was mother of ten

With the passing of Mrs. A. M. Rowat on September 2nd at the Barrie Memorial Hospital, Ormstown, the Athelstan community lost one of its oldest residents. Grace Rowat, older daughter of the late L. D. Watson and his wife, Mary Agnes Hampson, was born in Athelstan in 1905. She lived most of her life in the surrounding area of Athelstan.

In 1921, she was married to Archibald M. Rowat who predeceased her in 1980. Of this union ten children were born.

Mrs. Rowat was an active member of the Athelstan Presbyterian Church, Ladies Aid Society and Craft and Recreation Centre. She had also been a member of the Ladies Auxiliary, Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 81 for several years.

By nature, Mrs. Rowat was an industrious worker and always willing to lend a helping hand when the need arose. She enjoyed cooking and baking, so was always glad to set an extra plate whenever anyone dropped in. Most people went home with a bag of goodies besides, especially doughnuts. She'll always be remembered by her grandchildren and great-grandchildren for the many pairs of knitted mitts or afghans crocheted by her.

Surviving her are eight of her ten children, Allan of Chateaugay, Patricia (Mrs. Nelson Westover) of Athelstan, Katherine (Mrs. Armand Bouthillier) of Pembroke, William of Ottawa, Shirley (Mrs. Cyril O'Connor) of William's Lake, B.C., Letty (Mrs. Everett Donnelly) of Athelstan, Gerald of Pickering, Ontario and Judy of Chateaugay. Watson, husband of the former Margaret Tallon, predeceased his mother in 1969. Raymond Peter died at birth in 1947. She is also survived by thirty-five grandchildren and thirty great-grandchildren, one sister, Ida (Mrs. Edgar Barras) of Montreal and brother, David Watson of Winnipeg but was predeceased by one brother, Evan.

The funeral service was held September 5th at the Kelly Funeral Home with Rev. Neil Wallace officiating. Pallbearers, all grandsons were Allen Bouthillier, Edson Donnelly, Douglas Leslie, Wayne Rowat, Michael Rowat and Robson Rowat. Interment was in the family plot in the Athelstan Protestant Cemetery.

Fleming-Weizenbach wedding

by Isabel Elder
Dundee Correspondent

On Saturday, September 1, in Mount Calvary, Lutheran Church, Ottawa, Ont., Karen Christina Weizenbach and Brent Alexander Fleming were united in marriage. Pastor Joanna Malina performed the ceremony, and Mr. Garth Hampson, soloist with the R.C.M.P. Musical Ride was soloist. He sang beautifully three selections, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," "Panis Angelicus," and the "Wedding Hymn."

Karen is the only daughter of William and Frederike Weizenbach, and Brent is the son of Mrs. Dawn Fleming and the late Ronald A. Fleming.

Karen is employed at the Canadian Federation of Deans where she is in Management and Administrative Studies, and Brent is with Canadian Radio Television and Telecommunication Commission.

Kenneth Moore Jackson, former Hemmingford postmaster, dies

On August 4, 1990 the Hemmingford Community was saddened with the passing of Kenneth Moore Johnson. Hospitalized for nine weeks, he bore his suffering with great dignity and courage.

He was born in Montreal on October 13, 1920, son of William and Phoebe Moore Johnson. Kenneth was a veteran of World War II. Serving with the Royal Canadian Hussars, 5th Duke of York Regiment. Upon his return he was appointed post master of the Hemmingford Post Office, retiring in 1983. He was also a realtor for Guardian Trust of Canada.

Kenneth was a valued member of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 244. Survivors include step-daughter Janis (Jack) Marino of Berwyn, Pa., sister Ruth Lambertson; niece Sandra Aynes, both of Plattsburgh, N.Y. and great niece Heather Aynes of Albany, N.Y. His wife Edna Denno predeceased him in 1988.

A grave-side service was held in the Hemmingford Protestant Cemetery.
