IN MEMORIAM

KNOX - In loving memory of Hartley Sr.'s wife and our mom Marjorie Knox (née Lewis) who was suddenly taken away from her family on June 29th, 1990.

Mom who will cook turkey?

We have lots to thank you for, Lord, it's for giving us a loving Mom.

We've always counted on her being there, when we needed to talk to someone. You see Lord, Mom was called away this year and she won't be home anymore at Christmas time or Thanksgiving Day and it'll never be the same that's for sure.

On special occasions the family would get together and have a whole lot of fun; Mom would always be busy, she'd always be on the run, she'd start early in the morning to prepare the things to bake and when the meal was over she'd bring out her home-made cake.

We would get the turkey for Mom each year, and she'd make sure that she was the one to bake it till it was golden brown and show it off when it was done.

It's going to be hard to get through this year because things are different this time, Mom's not here to share it with us and there'll be crying at time.

Now we know Lord why you made little girls, because you knew one day would come, when these little girls take their place and they too will become a Mom.

So Mom we're here to go on, but without you, and someday we'll be by your side.

Mom you had so much to give,

We'll carry on with your love and pride.

We know Lord she'll be one of your angels at your table for Thanksgiving.

From her loving family
