Olive Easton celebrates 95th birthday

Olive Easton (Graham) was born at Brysonville, Quebec, one of a family of four, to farmer James Graham and his wife Mary Nussey Graham, on the January 25, 1896.

She attended Brysonville School—one mile from her home and obtained her high school education in Ormstown. She then went to MacDonald College where she received her diploma, graduating in June 1911. Olive began her teaching career at a school near home, across the river from her home and about three-quarters of a mile from the Brysonville School. In nice weather she travelled this distance by boat. Six of her eight years were spent in schools not too far from home while the other two year were spent in Alberta. The last two years she taught at Norton Creek

Olive Easton, who will celebrate her 95th birthday on January 25.

School in Aubrey. While there she met her late husband, Gordon. In 1921, they were married and settled on a farm on Norton Creek where they lived for fifty years ...

Olive had many attributes. She was a patient person who enjoyed children and, was always quick to help with their needs and interests. She had a vast knowledge of nature, birds, animals, trees and flowers. Her hands were seldom idle as she could tat, crochet and knit. She enjoyed gardening and always had beautiful plants in the house. Olive was a Life-Member of the Women's Institute. She held office at county level as Home Economics Convener of Chateauguay-Huntingdon County for a few years.

In 1971, the Eastons moved to Howick after selling their farm on Norton Creek. Unfortunately, Gordon did not have too long to enjoy his retirement and his new home. Ill health befell him and he passed away in 1974. Olive still carried on until her eyesight failed her and she moved to "La Residence Ormstown" in 1984, where she still resides. She has enjoyed her new surroundings since the first day she made her move due to excellent care and kindness she has received from all the staff.

Sincere congratulations to you, Olive, on your special day.
