Keith Curran spent life on Covey Hill

Harold Keith Curran, life long resident of Covey Hill passed away after a lengthy illness at the Barrie Memorial Hospital, April 15, 1991.

Keith was born September 23, 1910, the eldest of three children to the late Albert Curran and Emma Putton.

His school days started in Covey Hill and were completed at Hemmingford Intermediate School. These were time that Keith always remembered with fondness.

Upon completion of his education, he returned to the family farm where he devoted his life to the cultivation of apples. Keith, with his brother worked with great pride at keeping a fine orchard.

In addition to growing apples, the deceased was the secretary of the Covey Hill Fruit Growers during the 1930's. He was also a supplier of orchard chemicals for more than fifty years. This was a work that Keith thoroughly enjoyed as he was always keen for a visit and more than willing to help his clients with orchard and pest management.

Keith was a man who always maintained a great interest in community affairs, the Havelock Fair, municipal, provincial and federal politics, church and school to name a few. He was always ready to give his input to any of these organizations.

For much of his life he was an active musician and was Worshipful Master of Lodge # 72, Hemmingford in 1950-51.

During W.W. II, Keith was a most active member of local initiatives for the war effort through the selling of victory bonds.

He was pre-deceased by his only son Harold, a sister Edna and a brother James.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his dear wife of fifty-seven years, the former Rita Gilmore, his beloved daughter Dorothy (Mrs. John Clark) and three loving granddaughters, Cheryl, Connie and Crystal Clark.

The Reverend Elke Mehnert of St. Andrew's Wesley-Knox United Churches, Hemmingford, assisted by the Reverend Oliver Carmichael of St. Paul's United Church, Ormstown preached an impressive sermon to a capacity congregation at J.M. Sharpe Funeral Home, Franklin Centre, April 17th, followed by cremation. The interment was in the family plot at the Wesley Cemetery, Covey Hill.
