IN MEMORIAM

KNOX, Marjorie (née Lewis) - Who departed from us on June 29th, 1990.

Cancer had taken her life,
But never her Spirit and Memory

It will be Mother's Day this Sunday, our first without our Mom.

At times it's been a struggle to carry on.

Keeping our spirit up and a smile on our face

Over shadows the pains and hurt that can never be erased.

Why she had to suffer and endure so much pain

Has left many questions unanswered and one person to explain.

Thank God there is you in Heaven, it's Home where Mom can rest

Because it's been said many times, God Only Takes The Best.

We all will have our own special thoughts of you Mom, We love and miss you.

OSBORNE, Ivy - In loving memory of a dear friend who passed away on May 11th, 1990.

We who loved you, sadly miss you as it dawns another year.

In our lonely hours of nice memories that she left behind are always near.

Always remembered by her many friends who loved her.

RENNIE, Peggy - In loving memory of Peggy Rennie who passed away May 13, 1989.

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
So He closed his arms around you

And whispered come to me
You didn't deserve what you went through

And so He gave you rest
God's garden must be beautiful

For He only takes the best.
Remembered with love
Willis and family

WINTER, Lila - who passed away May 9th, 1989.

Gone dear aunt gone forever, how we miss your smiling face but you left us to remember.

No on earth can take your place.

A happy home we once enjoyed?

How sweet the memories still remain in our hearts of you. But your death has left loneliness and a lot of tears that the world can never fill.

Sadly missed, but always remembered by her brother Ross and her sister-in-law Vera and nieces and nephews Florence, Dorothy, Joyce, Christena, Donald, Ronald. Also by great nieces and nephews.

BERNERT, Jonathan - In loving memory of our precious son and brother, who passed away May 5th, 1980.

Dark threads are as needed in the weaver's skillful hand.

As threads of gold and silver in the pattern he has planned.

We may not choose the colours, he knows what they should be.

For he has weaved a pattern that none of us can see.

Not till his loom is silent and this shadow cease to fly.

Shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why.

Although the words are beautiful, it seems too strange to say.

For he has weaved a sorrow in our hearts to stay.

Sadly missed and ever loved, Mom, Dad, Judy, Joy, Kathie and Kaylie.

BIDWELL, Kathleen (née Taylor) - In loving memory of a dear wife and grandmother who passed away May 9th, 1987.

It does not seem that's all of 4 years

When you closed your lovely eyes, my dear

You were my inspiration and my life

How lucky I had you for my wife

We had our many ups and downs

You always knew the way around

I miss you more than anyone can know

I try to smile, so it won't show.

I'll do my best as you would do

To help those in need as you taught me to.

My love for you is still very strong

And will continue, as the day is long

You were very special to all who knew you

We all miss your sweet smile and eyes of blue

No wonder The Lord put his arms around you

And took you to your heavenly rest.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed, always in our thoughts

Your loving husband

Walter and family

JOLY, Pierre - In loving memory of a dear husband, father, friend, who accidentally passed away May 8, 1985.

Our thoughts and love are with you always.

Forever missed

Muffy, Dan, Eric & Joël

MAILLOUX, Andre - In memory of my beloved father and grandfather André Mailloux.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,

Or sat quietly in a chair;

Perhaps you sent a floral piece,

If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words.

As any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all.

Just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We thank you so much, whatever the part.

Claude, Linda, Jayson, Jonathan and Ashlee.
