The late Gordon Stanley McClatchie

After a lengthy illness Gordon Stanley McClatchie passed away at the Huntingdon County Hospital on April 26, 1991, at the age of 85.

Gordon was born at Powerscourt, Que, son of Arthur McClatchie and Annie Freeland. The family moved to a farm near Dewittville when he was quite young. He attended school at Dewittville and Huntingdon. He was predeceased by three sisters and one brother.

Later in years he bought the McClatchie farm at Powerscourt, and on June 22, 1932, he married Violet Forrester, and they farmed there for many years. He was very fond of his Jersey cattle. After losing their barn by fire they moved to Huntingdon.

He enjoyed walks down the street to visit friends and liked gardening and wood-working. He enjoyed folks coming to visit and was a quiet-natured man.

His funeral was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Neil Wallace and a favorite hymn was sung, "The Garden" by Murray McCaig. The pall bearers were John McGowan, David Johnson, David Rochon and Matthew Wallace.

He was laid to rest in the Powerscourt cemetery. He will be missed by many relatives, neighbours and friends.
