

Michael Duncan and Monica Mueller married

At noon on Saturday, August 31, the matrimonial ceremony joining Michael Duncan of Ormstown and Monica Muller of Powerscourt was performed at St. Paul's United Church in Ormstown by the Reverend Irvine Johnston of Napanee, Ontario, an uncle of the groom.

Daphne Bye played classical selections as the guests arrived. Then, to the music of traditional wedding march, the Matron of Honour, Patty McGill, walked down the aisle before Monica and her father, Walter Muller. Michael and his Best Man, Karl Johnston, stood at the altar as the bride's mother and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Duncan, parents of the groom, turned with the guests to welcome Monica and her father.

Together the parents of the bride and groom gave their blessing to the marriage. Michael and Monica gave each other their vows and symbolized their unity by lighting a single flame from two candles. Reverend Irvine Johnston presented Michael and Monica as Mr. and Mrs.

The Ordination of The Reverend David Everett Forrester

Sunday, September 15, 1991 was a red-letter day in the life of David Everett Forrester, only son of Beatrice and Everett Forrester of Ormstown.

The Reverend David Forrester's ordination marks the culmination of a decade of preparation. For five years he studied at the Emmanuel Bible College in Kitchener, Ontario. Prior to moving during the past summer to Callander with his wife, the former Ruth McIntyre, and their two young children, Katie and Adam, Dave served an associate pastorate in Windsor, Ontario, and a two-year ministry in Metcalfe.
