Evelyn Cookman Hadley 1914-1991

The community was saddened to learn of the death of Evelyn Alice Hadley (Cookman) who passed away peacefully at the Barrie Memorial Hospital on October 3, 1991. She had courageously battled leukaemia for seventeen years.

Evelyn was born in Henrysburg on January 21, 1914 and was a daughter of the late William S. Cookman and Jessie Elvidge. She attended Hemmingford Intermediate School where she graduated and then taught school in St. Luc.

She was married to Aylmer Hadley in 1933, who predeceased her in 1986. They built their home on Route 202 in 1940 where she lived and worked on the farm. Evelyn's pride and joy was her apple stand which she faithfully opened each year. Due to her illness she was unable to work in it this year. However this year she very proudly said, "I picked a box of apples today," and she felt much better for it.

Evelyn was a charter member of Victory Chapter No. 34, Order of the Eastern Star and attended the 48 Birthday Party in June. She held several offices in the chapter including Worthy Matron in 1947-1948, 1981-1982 and 1982-1983; Associate Matron, Secretary, Treasurer, Adah and other offices as well as working on committees. At the time of her death she was treasurer and Chairman of the Heart Fund Committee. She served her Grand Chapter as Grand Representative and worked on committees. She will be greatly missed.

Evelyn was a devoted member of St. Luke's Anglican Church and a faithful member of the A.C.W. where she served as secretary-treasurer for over 25 years.

Evelyn is survived by her six children: Donald (Mildred) of Hemmingford; Alice MacDougall of Williamstown, Ontario; Elsie (Gilles Collette) of Clarendville; Wayne (Juanita) of Hemmingford; Myrne (John Rawlings) of London, Ontario and Debbie (Ron Beaudet) of Candiac; her three sisters and brother Thelma Akester, Edna Jackson, Laura Edwards, and Kenneth Cookman, sister-in-law Doris Cookman, her brother Lynwood predeceased her in 1986, 14 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

The remains rested at the J.M. Sharpe Funeral Home in Hemmingford where the Order of the Eastern Star service was held on Friday evening October 4 and was largely attended. The funeral service was held on Saturday, October 5 from St. Luke's Anglican Church with the Rev. Andrew Sandilands officiating. The church was filled and overflowed to the outside.

The pall bearers were friends and neighbors Robert Curry, Bruce Armour, Fred Pelletier, Charles Petch, Michael Hawkins and Jim Laurie.

Interment was at the Hemmingford Protestant Cemetery. In lieu of flowers she requested donations to St. Luke's Anglican Church or the Hemmingford Volunteer Ambulance Service.
