Golden Wedding anniversary for Omer, Pierrette Langlais

by Elsie Melanson
Valleyfield Correspondent

The Valleyfield Community, along with many friends, wished to extend hearty congratulations to Omer and Pierrette Langlais, who celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary last Friday, Dec. 6.

They spent this day at home with their family.

However, to mark this event, a special celebration in honor of the couple was held on November 30, at the Boulevard Restaurant on Langlois Blvd.

This was a surprise, organized by their children, and attended by a total of 65 friends and family members.

The happy couple received many beautiful gifts and cards.

One of their most impressive and treasured gifts was a beautiful, laminated, "Benediction" Plaque received from Pope Jean-Paul.

Pierrette, the daughter of the late Pierre Despard and Irene Babin, of Montreal, and Omer, the son of the late Margaret Higgins (formerly of Manchester, Eng.) and Omer Langlais of Montreal, were married in Rosemount, Montreal, on Dec. 6, 1941. Omer at that time was a Captain of the Grenadier Guards, then in the Régiment de Maisonneuve.

The couple moved to Valleyfield in 1947, where Omer was on the Staff of Dominion Textiles.

They raised four children in Valleyfield and became notable citizens of this community.

We all wish them many more years of marital bliss within our community.

Omer and Pierrette would like to take this opportunity of extending their sincere thanks and appreciation to their family and friends who so graciously honored them at the special celebration on Nov. 30.
