The Poem

Next week it's Ormstown Fair

It's held each year in early June,

And it never seems to come too soon,
Throughout the Valley we're all aware,
That next week it's time for Ormstown Fair.
In this village on the Chateauguay,

They open their hearts in every way
To welcome all those who come to see,
How a country fair should really be.

There is something there for everyone,
It is four full days of family fun,
You will find that there's so much to share.

When you make a trip to Ormstown Fair,
You can see so many Crafts displayed,
And the best baked goods are all arrayed

Along with the Quilts, so well designed,
And the Needlework's the best you'll find,
There are Horses there that jump and trot,

Farm Machinery all over the lot,
The best of Cattle are brought to show,
Then they're washed and brushed... until they glow.

The Judging is always very keen,
The Cattle the best... you've ever seen,
Just make sure you have some time to spare,

And spent it next week at Ormstown Fair,
The children will love every Ride and Game,
You will walk so much you'll come up lame.

But it's worth it all... to just be there,
Next week when it's time for Ormstown Fair,
Jon Proudfoot

Ottneys celebrate 65 years

by Diane Farquhar
Rockburn Correspondent

Ed and Mildred Ottney have been married for 65 years. They were pleasantly surprised on Saturday afternoon when their family arrived and announced them they were having a garden party that afternoon to celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary. By 3 p.m. approximately 70 people arrived at their home on Rt. 202 just outside Huntingdon to bring their best wishes to this happy couple.

A wonderful time of visiting and enjoying the lovely flowers and grounds at the Ottney home went on all afternoon.

A delicious lunch of sandwiches and squares was served along with a tasty punch.

The Ottneys were married by a Justice of the Peace in Bryon, Ohio with Mildred's Step mother and dad as witnesses.

They moved to Lindsay, Ontario and from there moved to Huntingdon in 1959 where Ed was employed by the Roskis at the woollen mills as a dyer, where he worked until his retirement.

They are blessed with 5 children, 22 grandchildren and 33 great grandchildren.

Their family is spread out in a wide circle. They hail from Malone, Michigan, Cambridge, Ont., Lanard, Ont. and Almonte, Ont.

Ed is an avid gardener, he delights in caring for his large garden in his back yard.

Mildred has many talents also, she enjoys Crewl work, tendsher beautiful flower gardens and caring for her lovely home.

Continued health and happiness to you both on this very special occasion.
