Evelyn Waller leaves many warm memories

Funeral services were held at Rockburn Presbyterian Church on November 18, 1993 for Evelyn Waller, a long-time resident of the community who passed away suddenly on November 15. The service was conducted by Rev. John McPhadden, and pall-bearers were her six grand-sons.

Evelyn Lucinda Cowan was born on a ranch near Tombstone, Arizona on October 8, 1900, daughter of William Cowan and Florence Stevenson, original residents of the area.

While visiting family at the Stevenson farm at Franklin, Evelyn met Charles Waller and they were later married on June 14, 1922 at the Cowan Ranch in Tombstone.

They made their home on the Waller family farm until 1968 when they moved from the farmhouse to their newly built home close by, remaining an integral part of the farm life. They celebrated 58 years of marriage on June 14, 1980 before Charles' sudden passing in September.

During their life together, they welcomed two sons, Glen and Carl, and one daughter, Iris, to complete their family. Much sadness was caused by the loss of Carl on June 5, 1959.

Evelyn's childhood years were the basis for her appreciation of the land, love of animals and inner strength which she so quietly displayed.

Together she and Charlie worked diligently on the farm and in the community, always ready to lend a helping hand. She was an active member in the Rockburn Presbyterian Church, Ladies' Aid, Women's Institute and Rebekah Lodge.

Family and friends will be quick to recall special memories, and her handwork will continue to bring loving thoughts of one terrific lady.
