NELLIE PARÉ

WINNIE WARNER

Double birthday party held in Hemmingford

On Friday, Nov. 26, Nellie Paré and Winnie Warner were given a special party at the Vilouary Home in Hemmingford. Pauline Greer held Open House for Nellie's 95 birthday which was that day, and for Winnie Warner, who was 87 on December 2.

During the afternoon, Vince Ierfino played the guitar, Pauline sang favorite songs, "Amazing Grace", "Let there be Peace on Earth" etc. with others joining in.

Thelma Kennedy

entertained by playing some of the old familiar tunes on the piano and Helen Keddy, age 93, played her mouth organ.

Ashlee Mailloux did one of her dances which everyone enjoyed.

Pauline and her staff then served tea, coffee, squares and birthday cake. The cake was cut by the two birthday ladies.
