CARD OF THANKS

I would like to say thank you to the Franklin, Hinchinbrooke, Ormstown and Huntingdon Fire Departments for responding to my house fire on January 17. To Jim and Ruth Ness for taking me in, Debbie Waller from the Red Cross, also to my good neighbors and friends for clothing, money etc. up on the hill, down in the valley. Also to all the organizers who helped with the benefit party given to me. Please accept my most grateful thanks.

Charles Lamb

I would like to express my sincere thanks to relatives, friends and neighbours for cards, phone calls and visits and many expressions of sympathy shown at the time of my brother David's recent death. With appreciation.

IN MEMORIAM

BIGRAS, Gina 1971-1992 - In memory of our beloved Gina who was tragically killed, January 31, 1992.

When evening shadows are falling

And we're sitting here alone

To our hearts come a longing

If only you could come home

Mom, Papa, Michelle, Tammy and Joanna

Too dearly loved to be forgotten

NICHILO, Joan - In memory of my dear mom who passed away January 28, 1988

While she lies in peaceful sleep

Her memory we shall always keep

Donna

OUMET-DONNELLY, Stella - In loving memory of a dear mother

Memories keep drifting back

To many happy years together,

Those we love don't go away

They walk beside us every day.

Unseen, unheard but always near.

As time unfolds another year,

From family and friends

Warm memories cherished of Elgin's Madeline Brown

A funeral service was held January 5 in Lancaster, Ont. for Madeline Brown, who passed away at her Lancaster home on January 3. The service was conducted by the Rev. Arty Van Bruchem, minister of St. Lawrence Pastoral Charge.

Madeline Helen Moshier was born at Noyan, Que. on February 1, 1897, to William James Moshier and Helen Catherine Derick (a United Empire Loyalist family). She was the youngest of four children.

Madeline attended Model School (Teacher's College) at Ste. Anne-de-Bellevue, and taught school at Henryville, Que., Madawaska, Ont., and Kensington, Que., where she met John Alexander Brown of Elgin. They were married at Noyan on January 22, 1919. They made their home at Oakstream Farm in Elgin for the next 41 years.

They welcomed four children to their family: Margaret (Keith Howden); Evelyn (Paul Klinge); Merle (Robert Haverstock); and William (Jean Mack).

Jack and Madeline moved to Huntingdon in 1960, and enjoyed seven years of retirement before Jack died in 1967. Madeline went to Edmonton, Alta. in 1973 to live with her daughter Evelyn. In 1979 she returned to Eastern Canada, and made her home in Lancaster, near her daughter Merle and family.

Madeline was the loving grandmother of eight: David, (the late Doreen), Stephen, Derick, and Susanne Brown; Mary Lynn O'Shaughnessy; Barbara McKibbin, and Karen Haverstock. As well, several young friends adopted her as their 'Honorary Grandmother'. She was the proud great-grandmother of Alysha and Colleen Brown, Madeline and Timothy O'Shaughnessy, and Gabrielle Brown.

Madeline Helen Brown will always be remembered as a loyal, kind, cheerful friend with a quiet strength and a young outlook on life. She is also remembered as a loving and understanding mother, mother-in-law and grandmother. She leaves a legacy of treasured memories to those whose lives are richer and brighter because of her steadfast love.
