CARD OF THANKS

The family of Margaret E. Leehy (McGerrigle) would like to express our sincere appreciation to everyone for their visits, floral tributes, donations of food and donations to the Women's Auxilliary of the Huntingdon County Hospital, Little Green Library, spiritual bouquets, masses, cards and attendance at our mother and grandmother's funeral Mass. A special thank you to Father Clément for his many visits, for presiding at the funeral Mass and his comforting homily, to Micheline Latreille and her choir for the beautiful music at the Mass, to Doug Burns, Kay Brisebois and Audrey Bannon for assisting with the Liturgy, to the Catholic Women's League for the prayer service on Sunday, their participation at the Liturgy and for the delicious luncheon following the burial. We would also like to thank Dr. Rosenberg, the nurses and all the care givers on the 1st floor of the Huntingdon Hospital for the kind, gentle and professional care given to our mother and grandmother over the past two years. It was of great comfort to us knowing she had such good care. An added word of thanks to our family and friends who opened their homes to our family especially over the past four years and these past few days. We would also like to thank Kelly Funeral Home, Gilles Serre and Gerald Brisebois for their professional services.

Sincerely
Don & Bea Ouimet & family
