Ellerton-Dauphinais wedding held in Hemmingford church

A pretty wedding took place on Saturday, Apr. 29, at St. Romain Church, Hemmingford, when Susan Heather, youngest daughter of Mrs. Florence Ellerton and the late Gerald Ellerton, and Joseph Philippe Dauphinais, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jérémie Dauphinais, all of Hemmingford, were joined in matrimony.

The Rev. Ian Liversuch of St. Luke's Anglican Church, assisted by Father D'Aoust of St. Romain Church, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Graduation

Robyn Danielle Dauphinais received an Associate in Applied Science degree from Clinton Community College in Plattsburgh, N.Y., majoring in Medical Laboratory Technology. Robyn was in the 25th graduating class from both Chateauguay Valley Regional High School and Clinton Community College. In order to obtain a degree within two years, she carried eighteen credits per semester and attended Concordia University. Robyn trained at Champlain Valley Physicians Hospital in Plattsburgh. Robyn passed her Board of Registry exam in October of 1994 and is a member of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. While waiting for her US visa she returned to Clinton Community College to study Phlebotomy. Robyn is employed by North Western Medical Center Hospital in St. Albans, Vt. as a Medical Laboratory Technician. Robyn is the daughter of Barbara Dey Dauphinais and granddaughter of Dorothy Dey and Pauline and Jeremie Dauphinais of Hemmingford.
