Frank and Muriel Hayward

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hayward celebrate Golden Wedding

Frank and Muriel Hayward of the First Concession were united in marriage at Prittlewell, South England on August 24, 1945. They were married in an Anglican church ceremony with family and friends present. A hotel reception followed. The couple honeymooned at Maidenhead, north of London, for two weeks, then Frank returned to serve with the 48th Highlanders. Later they returned to Canada and settled in Toronto, until 1965 when they moved to Quebec.

Celebrations

The Haywards had a marvelous day of celebrations on Saturday, Aug. 26 to commemorate their Golden Wedding anniversary. Friends, neighbors and family gathered at the Rockburn Church Hall for an Open House during the afternoon.

IN MEMORIAM

OUMET, DENIS

Who died accidently four years ago today.

We have only your memory, dear son,

to remember our whole life through;

but the sweetness will linger forever,

as we treasure the image of you.

Ormstown's Ken, Barb Aldridge mark 50th wedding anniversary

On Friday evening, Aug. 4, Barbara and Ken Aldridge were invited to a B.B.Q. supper at the home of Tom, Jocelyne, Ian, Jason and Mandie Aldridge at St-Antoine-Abbé, but they didn't know about the surprise that was waiting for them.

Their son Brian and his children Brandon and Brandi were there from Brampton, Ont; along with daughter Judy and husband Jim Rivers and daughters Jennifer and Holly Reece from Calgary; Barb's sister Eleanor Reid from Vancouver, B.C.; sister Carita Zumbrunn from Calgary; nephew Bob Vanderbilt from Seattle, Wash.; long-time friends Ralph and Brenda Stonefield of Montague, P.E.I.; Mary and Craig Webber of Plymouth, Mass.; and, of course, daughter Daphne and Tom Irvine, Thomas and Timothy of Ormstown.

All this was to celebrate Barbara and Ken's 50th wedding anniversary.

After lots of good food and visiting, the happy couple found out there was a party planned for the next night at Yelle's Reception Hall at St-Antoine.

On Saturday night, folks were greeted at the door by the family, then the bride and groom were piped in by pipers Wanda Goundrey and their grandson Tommy Irvine.

M.C.s were Brian Aldridge and Jim Rivers. Daphne and Tim Irvine played the bass clarinet and the cornet; Tommy Irvine played "Amazing Grace" on the pipes; Jennifer and Holly Reece did a lip-sync number, "Never too Late to Fall in Love", and Judy Rivers read a poem.

Speakers were Robert Moffatt, Lindsay Cullen and Eunice Hicks. The maid of honor at the wedding was Vivian Legault Piercy; bridesmaid was Carita Orr Zumbrunn and Howard Reid was groomsman.

Music for dancing was supplied by the Denis Dumas orchestra and lunch was served by Francine Yelle Boyd.

Other guests included Joyce Anstice Kopsak of Glen Grove, N.Y.; Mark Bolton, Calgary; Ted and Vivian (Legault) Piercy, Hamilton, Ont.; Helen and Hector Beaudin, Troy, Ont.; Robert and Lorraine Moffatt of Ste. Dorothee, Que.; as well as folks from Kemptville, Ont.; Brossard, Que.; Pointe Claire, Cowansville, Montreal East, Pierrefonds, Chateaugay, Que.; Cornwall, Kingston, Ont.; and Ormstown area.

Among the many representatives of Chateaugay Lodge, Huntingdon Star of the Valley Chapter, Valleyfield, were P.G.M. Charles Ramsay and daughter Judy of Brossard and P. G. M. John and Belle Patience of Pointe Claire.

Congratulations to Barbara and Ken, whose actual anniversary date is September 1.

(J.M.)
