PRAYER

Prayer to the Blessed Virgin never known to fail. Oh most Beautiful flower of Mont Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of son of God, Immaculate Virgin. Assist me in my necessities. Oh Star of the Sea, help me, show me how you are my Mother, O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succumb me in my necessities. Make your request, there are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee, (Say 3 times, Holy Mother I place myself in your hand). Say this Prayer 3 consecutive days and publish it and it will be granted. Grateful thanks.

Double anniversaries marked with combined party at V'field

On Saturday, Aug. 5, 1995, a special celebration was organized by the daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Talbot to honor their parents on the event of their 50th wedding anniversary.

At the same time, their daughter Diane and husband Pierre Beauregard celebrated their own 25th anniversary.

The event was held at the home of daughter Christine (Mrs. Robert Leduc), on the Grande-Ile waterfront, where a huge tent erected on the lawn accommodated more than 70 guests, including friends and family of both couples, some from out of town, Quebec City and London, Ont.

Youngest daughter, Julie, was chosen to give the congratulatory speech.

Both couples were presented with gifts and flowers but the most special gifts were a woollen rug presented to Ernest and Pauline from family and friends, and a Tiffany lamp presented to Diane and Pierre.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Talbot

Despite the inclement weather (it was probably the wettest day of the summer), everyone had a wonderful time.

As a note of interest, Ernest and Pauline were married on August 9, 1945 in the little church at Côteau Station.

Ernest is the son of the late James Talbot and Anne Holden, formerly of Lancashire, England, and Pauline is the daughter of the late Dr. Louis Hébert, former Mayor of Côteau, and Celine Lanctot.

The couple were blessed with four daughters: Diane, Linda, Christine and Julie, also two grandsons and two granddaughters.

Diane and Pierre Beauregard were married on August 22, 1970.

Many friends wish to extend sincere, (though belated) congratulations to these very well-known and respected members of the community. (E.M.)
