

Huntingdon funeral held for Paula Curran of Kitchener

Many residents of Valleyfield and Huntingdon were greatly saddened by the unexpected death of Paula Curran on October 30, 1995 in Kitchener, Ont. She was 46.

The funeral service was held Friday, November 3 at St. Joseph's Church in Huntingdon, with Fr. Gabriel Clément officiating, assisted by Mr. Deegan and Audrey Bannon. Sister Anne Murphy (of the Holy Names, Jesus and Mary, of Montreal) a cousin of Paula's mother Margaret, gave the touching eulogy.

Many friends and family members attended the service to say farewell to a dear friend and offer condolences.

Paula, the daughter of Margaret Bannon and the late James Curran (formerly of Huntingdon), was born and grew up in Nitro. She attended St. Ignatius School in Valleyfield.

She became an employee of the Prudential Assurance

Company, moving up to become Administrative Assistant of the Sales Division at the head office in Kitchener. One of her jobs was to coordinate sales conferences and conventions for the National sales staff. She organized conferences in Amsterdam, Hawaii and Banff and as a member of the Sales Motivation Committee, she implemented new sales contests and incentive programs.

She was also in charge of the Banff Schools for Branch Managers across Canada.

Following the service lunch was served by the Dames Chretiennes in the Parish Hall.

Sympathy is extended to Paula's mother, Margaret of Nitro; sister, Trudy (Ian MacDonald) of Valleyfield; and Wendy, of Kitchener; also brothers, Patrick of Kitchener, and Martin of Nitro, and nephew Eric MacDonald of Valleyfield.

IN MEMORIAM

FLEMING-NADON, Valerie

Feb. 12, 1987 - Nov. 20, 1992

To my beautiful daughter

Three years have passed since last I held you,

Time is swift.

Three years have passed since last I heard you,

Or felt your kiss.

Life continues, and things have changed

But you will never

You've kissed my life, if only for a moment,

But that moment has lasted forever.

Missing you always

Mommy
