IN MEMORIAM

DINEEN, Dorothy - In loving memory of my wonderful mother who passed away 1 year ago, July 23, 1995.

*What I would give if I could say
I'm going to see my Mom today.
To hear her voice, to give a hug, to see her smile,
And just to sit and talk awhile.
But I have lost and God has gained
The best of Moms this world contains.
What is a home without a Mother?
All things this world may send
But when I lost my dear Mother
I lost my dearest friend.*

Love you Mom, God Bless
Christine

GILLIES, David - Dec. 12, 1975-Aug. 5, 1990.

Too dearly loved to be forgotten.

Love Nannie, Grandpa aunts, uncle & cousins

IN MEMORIAM

DINEEN, Dorothy - In memory of our precious sister, sister-in-law, and aunt who's spiritual life began 1 year ago on July 23, 1995.

*God saw you getting tired when a cure was not to be,
He closed His arms around you and whispered "Come to Me"
In tears we saw you sinking, we watched you fade away
Our hearts were broken, you fought so hard to stay.
When we saw you sleeping so peacefully free from pain,
We would not wish you back to suffer that again.
So, please treasure her Lord, in your garden of rest
For here on earth she was one of Your precious roses, she was one of the best.*

Sadly missed, and never to be forgotten
The Dineen Family

TAYLOR, Reginald - In loving memory of our dear Reg., July 26, 1986.

*It's hard to believe
That ten years have gone by without you
Not one day passes without us remembering.
A time, a joke, a saying, or a smile
That we've shared.*

Remembered always
George, Scott, Jen & Maggie

TAYLOR, Reginald - In loving memory of a dear Dad, Grandpa & husband, July 26, 1996

*He was someone we could talk to
No one can replace,
He was someone we could laugh with till the tears ran down our face,
He was someone that we loved more
As each year came to an end.
He was a wonderful Father
But most of all our best friend.*

So deeply missed
Your Loving Family

CARD OF THANKS

A sincere thanks to our family for a most memorable afternoon celebrating our 50th anniversary to our relatives and friends for cards gifts and flowers and for coming to help us celebrate the occasion.

Garnet & Eleanor

The family of the late Willis Bott wish to thank Dr. Geukjian for things he did for our father & husband over the many long years. Also to friends and relatives for their kind expressions of sympathy. Many thanks for the beautiful floral tributes, memorial donations, cards & food. Special thanks to Rev. John McPhadden, to the Women's Presbyterian Church Adult group who served the delicious refreshments after the funeral. Please accept this as a personal. Thank-you.

The Bott family

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all our friends, neighbours, and relatives for the cards, gifts, and good wishes which were extended to us on the occasion of our 25th Wedding Anniversary; also a special thanks to all who attended our party, especially those who came from Toronto, Ottawa, Kingston, and Montreal to be with us; to our family who organized the party and those who helped in any way; and to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Legion for serving delicious refreshments. All was greatly appreciated.

Norman and Pearl Fennell

The family of the late Huguette Ouimet wish to thank relatives, neighbours, and friends for their kind expressions of sympathy with visits, cards & flowers. All was very much appreciated.

Cell-mate held for murder of Ormstown man in V'field jail

A 39 year-old Ormstown man was beaten to death in Valleyfield's provincial jail during the night of July 26, presumably by his cell-mate.

Dead is René Emond, who was serving a one-year term for impaired driving. He was sharing a cell with Valleyfield native Alexandre Legault, 20, sentenced to 77 days in jail for a July 3 attack on a woman in a Valleyfield bar.

Emond's mutilated body was discovered by prison staff around 4 a.m. July 27.

Legault appeared in court in Valleyfield on Monday July 29 and was transferred to Montreal's Pinel Institute for psychiatric tests. Police said Legault claimed he was being chased by demons who were trying to murder him.

Members of Emond's family (he has 18 brothers and sisters) and others questioned how the violent events (Emond's body was eviscerated and partially dismembered) could have occurred without being noticed by jail guards. The family also wants to know why Emond was placed in the same cell as a violent offender like Legault.

Arthur Fauteux, regional director of correctional services, stated that Legault's behavior in jail up to that point had given no signs of violence.

"He had shown no signs of aggression during his imprisonment, up until the time of the murder," he said.
