IN MEMORIAM

STONEHOUSE, George - Passed away August 17, 1994

Remembered always by your children
George, Raymond,
Douglas, Patsy, Jean,
Andy, Peggy

FORTIN, Alan - Torn harshly from life two years ago, his absence is ever a hurtful echo. His family, his wife, his friends, his neighbours; in this week that marks their grief they remember also his laughter and his joy, his energy and his curiosity, his dreams and his goodness.

Alan, you are sorely missed.

*For Réal, Phyllis, Jeff, Brian, Katie, Tom, Pat; for all family and all friends, the world is forever more a sparser place.
You live in their love.*

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Ernest Porter would like to thank relatives, neighbors and friends for their kind expression of sympathy and love with visits, cards and flowers in our time of need.

Shirley Porter & family

Many thanks to my family, relatives and friends for the surprise birthday party and for the lovely gifts and cards. This joyous occasion will be remembered for a very long time.

G. Goundreys mark 50th anniversary

Garnet and Eleanor Goundrey of Elgin marked their 50th Wedding Anniversary on August 3.

Eleanor was a glowing bride once again as she walked on the arm of her handsome groom. As Garnet led her to the center of the room, 50 years of memories together sparkled in their smile.

Before beginning married life at River Junction Farm on the 4th Concession, Garnet Goundrey was born and raised in the Howick area. Eleanor (née MacFarlane) grew up in and around Elgin with her older brother Raymond. Operating a dairy farm was their chosen life's work and soon a son and daughter, Wayne and Wanda, were born.

On Saturday, Aug. 3, 1996, approximately 150 friends and neighbors joined them at Athelstan Presbyterian Church (where they were married) to help celebrate these 50 years. Also in attendance were relatives from as far away as Oshawa, and their two grandsons, Wendell and Winston, who live in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Goundrey.
