Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark mark Golden Wedding

Jack and Rhoda Clark of Franklin Centre joyfully celebrated their 50 years of married life on October 4.

They were married at St. Matthew's Presbyterian Church in Pointe-St. Charles on October 4, 1946, and a half-century later they fondly reminisced about their 9 p.m. marriage ceremony.

Wed in suit

Rhoda recalled she wore a shimmering coffee-colored suit with a matching hat. She was attended by her sister Thora Hustins and Jack's sister Verna Clark. Jack's best man was his brother George Clark.

As they exchanged their vows, they were surrounded by a large group of friends and family, and a reception followed at the bride's home in Park Extension. Jack said they went off on a short honeymoon in his 1932 Ford card.

The Clarks lived in Park Extension, St. Laurent, and Chateaugay, Que., before moving to Franklin Centre some years ago.

They are blessed with three daughters: Cheryl of Ottawa, Linda of Franklin Centre and Lorraine of Vaudreuil Terrace and are proud grandparents of eight. They also have two great-grandchildren.

Family party

The couple were honored at a family dinner party on Saturday evening Oct. 5, and they have been showered with cards, gifts and flowers, as well as certificates from Prime Minister Jean Chrétien and Quebec Premier Bouchard.

Congratulations go to Jack and Rhoda at this wonderful time.

—D. Farquhar

BROWN, Walter - In loving memory of a dear Dad who passed away Oct. 10, 1994.

*Dad
If someone were to ask me
What a perfect day would be
I wouldn't think of places
That have lovely sights to see
I wouldn't wish for sunny skies
Or special things to do
I just want to have a day
That I could spend with you.*

Love always and sadly missed
