Hunter shot near H'ford dies Nov. 13

A 68 year-old Ville-St-Laurent hunter, accidentally shot by another hunter November 3 near Hemmingford, died in a Montreal hospital last Wednesday Nov. 13.

The unidentified victim was mistaken for a deer and shot by Claudio Zaccagna, 46, of Montreal, who now faces a charge of criminal negligence with a firearm resulting in death.

Shot in both arms, the victim underwent extensive surgery at the Montreal General Hospital the day after the accident. He was resuscitated when he suffered a cardiac arrest on the operating table, and later was declared out of danger.

Unfortunately, he died on Wednesday as a result of two pulmonary embolisms, according to a local source.

IN MEMORIAM

FLEMING-NADON, Valerie Christine, Feb. 12, 1987 - Nov. 20, 1992

To my daughter

Thank you for being mine
A choice that someone made
A gift that was sent on angels wings
And a child of ours you became
Those angels came to play with you
One November eve
They whispered in your ear
That it was time to leave
Although I miss you painfully
I can never give thanks enough
For being so lovingly graced
In having the chance
To love a child as such.

Missing you always,
Mom

We love you Dad.

ELLERTON, Gerald - In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather who passed away 8 years ago on November 25, 1988.

We did not see you close your eyes,
Nor did we hear you sigh,

We only heard that you were gone
without a last good-bye.
Things have changed in many ways
But one thing changes never.
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
