Dr. Edwin Clarence (Tim) McCoy passed away in Vancouver on December 24, 1996 at the age of 85.

He was the eldest son of the late E.C. McCoy and his wife, the late Edna Brown of Huntingdon.

His early education was at Huntingdon Academy where he won the Lord Athelstan Scholarship (worth $1,000) in 1930. He graduated from McGill University with a B.A. in 1934 and a M.D. C.M. in 1939, and went on to post-graduate study in Montreal, Bermuda, Pennsylvania and Vancouver. He then spent four years in the Canadian Navy as a surgeon lieutenant.

After the war he settled in Vancouver as a general practitioner from 1946 to 1961 and was on staff at the Vancouver General Hospital.

He played a major role in the establishment of the College of General Practice of Canada in 1954 and served as its president in 1962. He was also an active advocate of prepaid health plans and served as president of Trans Canada Medical Plans in both 1951 and 1952. He was president of the Vancouver Medical Association from 1952-1953 and of the B.C. Medical Association from 1959-1960.

He left private practice in 1960 and served as executive director of the B.C. Medical Association for 14 years.

In 1961 he was a member of a four man CMA delegation to Australia to study the Australian medical plan and in 1964 was part of another delegation to the Soviet Union to look at medical services there.

Dr. McCoy's third career phase came in 1975.

He had been involved in the CMA's investment programs and retirement savings plan and had been a member of the Board of Directors of M.D. Management Ltd. (the CMA's financial wing) since it was founded and a member of the executive committee since 1974.

DeREPENTIGNY, Bruno - In loving memory of a dear brother and uncle who left us January 5, 1993.

*The power which dazzles mortal eyes,
Is often but perseverance in disguise.
Continuous effort of itself implies,
In spite of countless falls the power to rise.
There is no failure, save in giving up,
No real fall, so long as one still tries,
For seeming set-backs make the strong man wise.
So God grant me the Serenity to accept
The things I cannot change....
Courage to change the things I can
And wisdom to know the difference.*

Thanks dear Bruno for helping and rest in peace.

Lovingly,
Lisette, Theo, Erich & Matthew
