Trucker killed at St-Bernard

A 25 year-old truck driver from the Bas-St-Laurent region died early Friday morning in St-Bernard-de-Lacolle when he lost control of his semi-trailer.

The truck, loaded with asphalt shingles, left a Highway 15 ramp and plunged into the L'Acadie River at the very same location where another fatal crash claimed the lives of an elderly man and his grandchildren just a few years ago, an officer of the Lacolle Sûreté du Québec detachment recalled.

The victim of Friday's 6 a.m. accident was Sébastien Dupuis of St-Jean-Lalande, Que. The driver of a vehicle following the truck witnessed the accident but police could not establish whether the driver might have fallen asleep at the wheel.
