IN MEMORIAM

KNOX (Lewis), Marjorie - Who's been at everlasting peaceful sleep since June 29, 1990, from cancer of lining of stomach that had spread to the intestine, pancreas, liver and lymph nodes.

*Our tear drops fell
Like rain that day
When you closed your eyes
And slowly slipped away.
Dear God how we prayed
To keep you by our side
Holding on for dear life
Trying hard not to cry.
To have left without you
Leaving you there all alone
How we prayed to God
"Please just let "Mom" come home".
As we walked away slowly
Not wanting to go
Hearts breaking, tears falling
It was hurting us so.
After weeks of suffering
In so much pain here
You were transferred to Montreal,
But only to lose you a few days later
That day we'll always recall.
A specialist in Montreal, told us
"This was coming for a long time,"
Your Discharge Summary here
Says "Psychosomatic", meaning
"It was all just in your mind!".
How we wished this never happened
We'll never forget our last good-bye
We visit you often
Where you're at rest "Mom"
As we wipe the tears from our eyes.*

Longing for you always
Your husband Hartley
