IN MEMORIAM

DesPAROIS, Rosalind - In loving memory of a dear aunt

"To Those I Love," by Isla Paschal Richardson:

*"If I should ever leave you whom I love
To go along the Silent Way, grieve not,
Nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk
Of me as if I were beside you there.
(I'd come - I'd come, could I but find a way!
But would not tears and grief be barriers?)
And when you hear a song or see a bird
I loved, please do not let the thought of me
Be sad... For I am loving you just as
I always have... you were so good to me!
There are so many things I wanted still
To do - so many things to say to you...
Remember that I did not fear... It was
Just leaving you that was so hard to face...
We cannot see Beyond... But this I know:
I loved you so - 'twas heaven here with you!"*

Lovingly your nieces and nephews

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Vincent Lavigne would like to express their sincere thanks to Dr. Hébert and the staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital especially the nurses of the Third floor for the loving care given him and the support to the family. Also thanks to Dr. Rosenberg and the staff of Huntingdon County Hospital. A special thank you to all who attended his funeral mass and to all those who expressed their sympathy. Everything was much appreciated.

Native of Allan's Corners dies at 92 in Malone, N.Y.

Rosalind G. DesParois, 92, of 8 Jones St., Malone, died September 16, 1998, in the Alice Hyde Nursing Home, where she had been a patient since July.

Born in Allan's Corners, Que. November 13, 1905, she was the daughter of David and Lillias Greig.

She graduated from Ormstown High School and attended the Royal Victoria School of Nursing in Montreal. She later graduated in 1927 from the Alice Hyde Hospital School of Nursing in Malone.

On April 27, 1928, she married Claude DesParois in Notre Dame Church in Malone. He predeceased her on July 15, 1975.

Mrs. DesParois was employed by the Alice Hyde Hospital many years ago. She then worked for Dr. F. Finney in Malone until his retirement in 1965. She was then employed by the Franklin County Department of Social Services. She retired in 1973.

Mrs. DesParois was a charter member of the Registered Nurses of Malone and a communicant of the First Congregational Church of Malone. In her youth, she was an accomplished horsewoman.

Surviving are a daughter, Joyce Verney of Malone; a grand-daughter and grandson-in-law, Cynthia and Hal Queyor of Malone; two great-grandchildren, John Sansone and Jenna Sansone, both of Malone; and several nieces and nephews.

Besides her husband, she was predeceased by two brothers, Robert and William Greig; and five sisters, Olive Greig, Lillias Hooker, Violet Bryson, Winetta Barrington and Jean Foote.
