IN MEMORIAM

DEREPENTIGNY - In loving memory of our precious parents and brother who passed away - Bruno - January 5, 1993; Dad - March 18, 1986 and Mom - March 19, 1997.

*Lord, our family stands before you
Most of the time; we present a united front, but on occasion, we are bitterly divided.*

We love each other and yet we have said hurtful things.

We appear confident but only after we have conquered our fears.

Help us to strengthen our family ties as we enlarge our circle of friends.

Help us to keep our hearts open as our family unit evolves.

Help us to keep hope alive, for hope reaches out and sustains us in time of need.

Belonging to a family means more than sharing the same name or blood lines.

We must be able to recognize our weaknesses and forgive our short comings.

We love each other in spite of our differences and we celebrate our similarities.

Our family members are united by love, shared memories and parents' prayers.

Lord, help us to keep this miracle called family life alive.

And, as we must learn to live with the loss of so many loved ones, give us the strength to keep on.

Help us to model our family life on yours, in faith and in love.

Till we are together again.

Lisette, Theo, Erich and Matthew

GRAHAM, Mervyn William - In loving memory of a dear husband, father, father-in-law and grandfather who passed away two years ago on January 11, 1997.

*We often think of days gone by
When we were all together,*

*The family chain is broken now
But memories last forever.*

Lovingly remembered by Christena, Melvin, Verna, LeaAnn (Michael), Karen and Sheri

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Franziska Bejcek wish to extend sincere thanks to all their family and friends for their many kindnesses at the time of Oma's death. Special thanks to Maureen, and to Alain and the staff of La Source Bleue.

Sincere thanks to our many relatives and friends who attended our 60th Wedding Anniversary party. Thanks also for cards, gifts, phone calls and visitors to our home. A special appreciation to all who participated in making the party such a success. We have memories we shall cherish forever. We extend our heartfelt thanks to the ladies of the Huntingdon Legion Branch 81 for serving a delicious lunch.

H'don native Clifford Cameron dies in Ontario at the age of 92

Huntingdon native Clifford Cameron died December 2 in a Long Sault, Ont., nursing home where he had been a patient since last February. He was 92.

Funeral services were held at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Huntingdon, on December 7.

Born in Huntingdon on March 25, 1908, Clifford was the son of the late Thomas Cameron and his wife, the former Margaret Douglass. After growing up on the family farm, he worked for Leach Textiles and later as farm manager for the late T.L. Watson.

In 1937, he married Helen Brown of Huntingdon. They had two sons, Tom (Elaine) and Gary (Diane) and later three grandchildren: Megan, Jennifer and Adam (who was born on his grandfather's birthday).

Active in community

Clifford farmed on the Lost Nation for 30 years, and was a faithful member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, where he served as an elder for over 40 years. He was a member of Montreal Milk Producers, and served 10 years as a municipal councillor for Hinchinbrooke.

In 1981, the Camerons sold their farm and moved to Williamsburg, Ont.

After his sons emigrated to Australia, Clifford acted on his love of travel and he and Helen went there to see the grandchildren, as well as touring Canada, Europe, the U.S.A. and New Zealand.

He is survived by his wife, his sons and their families; brother Grant of Green Valley Ont.; sister Olive Voisey of Ottawa; and nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by three sisters, Wynne (Capsey), Clare (Brown) and Marjorie (Barrington); and two brothers, Douglas and Ross.

At the funeral, conducted by Rev. Kate Jordan, pallbearers were Donald McGregor, Robert Whyte, Robert Middlemiss, Mervin Paul, Carl Levers and Royce Ruddock. Interment was at Huntingdon Protestant Cemetery.

Herdman native dies in Grand Isle, Vermont

Herdman native Helen Elizabeth (Levers) White died in Grand Isle VT on Monday Dec. 7, 1998, after a lengthy illness. She was 73.

Born October 26, 1925, she was the daughter of the late Walter and Janet (Graham) Levers.

She married Floyd Leon White and the couple lived in several Vermont Islands communities, including Pleasant Valley, where Mrs. White was well-known for her community work and great cooking. She also loved feeding the birds and watching their antics. Before her retirement, Helen was the manager of the Sand Bar Motel in South Hero.

She is survived by her husband, two sons and their families, a step-daughter, nieces and nephews and two sisters, Ruth Leggett and Janet Levers, both of Huntingdon.

Funeral services were held December 10 at the South Hero Congregational Church.

Toddler killed in ATV accident

An accident involving an all-terrain vehicle resulted in the death of a two-year-old boy in St-Anicet on Sunday Dec. 27.

Little Marc-Olivier Lambert and his parents of Boisbriand were visiting the toddler's grandparents when an ATV driven by his father overturned, crushing the child, who was riding behind his father.

The four-wheel vehicle flipped while scaling a slope near the Montée Cazaville, said Isabelle Gendron of the Montreal office of the Sûreté du Québec.

The child was taken to hospital by ambulance, but died shortly afterward.
