IN MEMORIAM

AUTHIER, Arthur - In memory of a dear husband and loving father who passed away 15 years ago. "On March 11, 1984, the town of Huntingdon lost one of its most cherished and beloved members. Arthur Authier died in his home at the young age of forty, leaving behind his wife Margaret and two boys, Marc and Ricky.

Born on March 21, 1943, Arthur Leon Authier was the only son of Eva Cote and Ollidor Authier of Montreal, he is survived by his three sisters, Monique, Claudette, and Lorraine whom all presently reside in Boucherville, Quebec.

Arthur graduated Police academy in 1966 and was first posted in the small community of Huntingdon with the local Sureté du Québec detachment, he quickly gained the respect of its citizens as being a fair and honest police officer. He maintained this high quality of professionalism throughout his 18 year career until his shocking death on that one fateful Sunday.

On October 21, 1967, Arthur married a local girl by the name of Margaret Louise Cosgrove, daughter of Margaret Ann Caray of Newfoundland and Hugh Francis Cosgrove of St. Anicet. Two sons, Marc and Ricky, joined this young couple to make this a complete and happy family. Margaret still resides in Huntingdon and is healthy and in good spirits. Marc is now married to Nancy O'Connor of Montreal (no relation to the Huntingdon O'Connors), they own a house in Ile Perrot and are very happy together. Rick has recently moved to the Maritimes where he has close family, he also is doing very well and is in good health.

While alive, Arthur was a Minor Hockey coach, Boy Scout Leader, Church Warden and on the Hospital Board. He also regularly visited the local Elementary and High schools lecturing on Drug and Alcohol abuse, vandalism and the results of school yard fighting. His sudden passing hit the small community of Huntingdon very hard and he is still deeply missed by all those who were fortunate enough to have known him. We can call count ourselves lucky for having been touched by this great individual."

Margaret, Marc, & Ricky

In loving memory

In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, who passed away March 13, 1997.

God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be,
So He closed His arms around you,
And whispered "Come to me",
And so, He gave you rest, God's garden must be beautiful,
For He only takes the best, And when we saw you sleeping, So peaceful and free from pain, We could not wish you back to suffer again.

Lovingly remembered
Your wife Rita, son Stanley Jr., Ralph, Carolyn, Richard, Gary, Linda.
